Chapter 71: New Battle

Baron Boodoman' side have 13 soldiers (of which four were slightly injured, others dropped out due to injuries) versus 12 people on Pauline' side.

Pauline, Rena, Teresa are not include in the number. The Earl insists to settle this with swords.

Royal Knight Captain Santos was firmly included in the warfare by his own wish.

At first glance it looks almost equal. No, it is certainly equal. The number of "People" is.

However, the strength difference was out of the question.

One side are military soldiers of a low rank noble.

Other side are 6 escort knights,

the military commander the Earl himself and 2 of his sons that were strongest knight in their land,

the Royal Knight Captain,

(T.N: Average) C rank hunter Mile and Maevis.

It was just bullying.

And ... It ended in a moment.

The Earl beat two soldiers at once (TN: he must quite angry), everyone else beat one soldier.

Everyone had sufficient ability power, so they didn't kill the soldiers, only knocked them down to give less serious injury.

In order to do it, a certain level of ability difference is necessary. Just like Maevis talking with Rena before, when we are much more stronger than the enemies, we don't need to kill them.

"... Well, then I will have you accompany us, Baron-dono" (Captain Santos)

“What, ... I have no obligation to obey such thing!” (Baron)

Daunted by Captain Santos sudden speak, Baron Boodoman hurriedly denied.

“If it had been a while ago, it certainly was.

『Red O』... cough, 『Red blood is justice』’s members are individual actions that were not instructed by anyone else.

And the king only want me to investigate the testimony of the rogues we captured in the capital that was concerned about that merchant.

We have no suspicions or testimony against Baron Boodoman-dono.

We only came to calm the trouble in the territory and just tried to seize the guilty parties” (Captain Santos) Baron Boodoman

“Hmm, you are truly a captain knight of the royal palace, you understand well!” (Baron)

However, Santos’ words continued.

“That was before you attack us.

But right now, you are a rebel who ordered your subordinates to kill the Earl, the Kingdom capital’ Guild Master’ Agent and the Captain who received the delegation of His Majesty the King.

That is a serious crime. No matter how noble you are, you can not avoid felony charges.” (Captain Santos) “What ...” (Baron)

“Well, Do you really think you can get away after trying to kill us.

Earl-dono, If you please.”

Nodded at the request of Santos, Earl Austin ordered his subordinates to capture Baron Boodoman who is trembling with a pale blue face. The Baron is silently tied up without resistance.

“Let’s search the baron’s house and secure evidence properties. You also have to confirm whether the Baron’s family and relatives, aides, etc. are guilty like him” (Earl) “Yes, that’s right” (Captain Santos)

Santos affirms the word of Earl Austin.

The result of this confirmation will be the judgment whether the Boodoman Baroness, children and relatives will be crushed or not.

Also, even if the heirs were decent, if the aides and the like were corrupted, it was still necessary to replace the upper part themselves.

Along with the elimination of many accomplice merchants.

The Earl who tried to head to Boodoman's house with Santos, the two sons and the subordinate, looked back and talked to Maevis.<

/p>

"The carriage of the captive squad from the Kingdom's capital will arrive in two days. We will deliver the sinners.

And Maevis, you will be going back to home on the third morning.

Until then, enjoy the last moment with your friends." (Earl)

"Huh ..." (Maevis)

Maevis doesn't understand what her father said and has a confusing face.

"The store will return to the hands of the daughter's family.

From now on, the three mother, son and daughter will have to defend the shop together by themselves. It is the important shop left by the father after all.

The play "Great Adventure of the Brave Maevis" will be over with this.

And Maevis, if you want I will arrange a worthy marry partner for you." (Earl)

"SUCH A THING IS NOT NECESSARY!" (Maevis, Yuan, 1st Brother)

Mevis, Yuan, and the eldest brother's voice overlapped.

"We will never need to prepare a marry partner for Maevis!" (Yuan)

"That's right! Maevis will stay at home with us forever ..." (1st Brother)

"No, that's kinda ..." (Maevis)

The three brothers and sister denied the words of the Earl together. But Maevis also didn't want to live the rest of her life at home, so she declined her brothers's words for the time being.

"Anyway, I don't want to see you to face dangerous thing like this again, I will forgive you playing time outside so far.

If you want to do the knight's mimicry, I will let you do that at the mansion.

When you become a noble wife, you will need minimum ability to protect yourself and your children" (Earl) After the Earl said that, he accompanied his son and his subordinate and left.

After the Earl's departure, the girls returned to the inn.

Yuan and Teresa are heading to the baron's house with the Earl.

And in the room of the inn, the girls are just silence.

"..." (Maevis + Mile + Rena + Pauline)

Maevis will soon left the party and go back to her house and live her life there as a noble' daughter. It was not a story that others could not speak lightly.

Eventually Mile can't stand the silence and asking Maevis.

"Maevis, what are you going to do?" (Mile)

"We have barely done anything yet! To think I need to give up everything like this. I'm quite frustrated" (Maevis) Maevis answer half crying.

Pauline already solved her family's problem. And it was supposed to be happy event. But this situation is also caused by it make everyone silent depressed.

And for Rena, she feels depressed as she thinks.

"After losing Pauline and Maevis, 『Red Oath』party will be disbanded.

Even if we gather new members together with Mile. They won't be a a companion who has worked hard in training, a companion who binds with a soul and pledges eternity friendship together.

Then, we can't name the party 『Red Oath』anymore. we had to change the name and start again as a new party.

Besides that, Mile may not come with me. Because of the synchronized, they are a party with four people in the same room.

In the first place, can Mile let the new member know about her ability and can we be sure they will not be tempted?

Also, With Mile's ability, she will be invited to many higher party.

No, it won't happen, Mile already refused 『Mithril Roar』. Beside Mile has always been held back ...

Even Maevis has always been with them, in the end she was a noble daughter, she have 『Obligations as a person born of aristocratic family』 to fulfill.” (Rena's inner thought) Rena thought so, she couldn't say anything to Maevis.

And the girls become silence again ...

“Well, let's drive back Maevis's family!” (Mile)

“...Hah?” (Rena + Maevis + Pauline)

Maevis, Rena and Pauline are instantly reacted to Mile's words.

“Well? Don't you think it will be bad if Maevis comes back to her parent's house and wasn't allowed to leave anymore?

Then, for those who think that it is better for Maevis to remain in the “『Red Oath』, please raise your hand!” (Mile) Baba~ba (SFX)

Four girls, including Mile, raise their hands.

Four girls look back on each other's face.

“But, how could we do it! Chichiue will not listen ...” (Maevis)

Mile answered it with a smile.

“He he. There is such a saying in my country 『If you know your enemies and know yourself, you will not be imperiled in a hundred battles』” (Mile) It was a saying that they listen for the first time, but the girls are hunters that have a lot of battles. They could understand what the word says.

“We know a lot about Maevis and about her family ...” (Mile)

“Ah...” (Rena + Pauline)

Rena and Pauline at the point, realized what Mile want to say.

Only Maevis is blind to that fact, she doesn't understand the meaning.

Over half a year, Maevis seemed to have no consciousness of how much she talked about her family.

And the three girls: Mile, Rena, Pauline knew every details about Maevis's family. It is probably the best in this world except Maevis and her family.

"Chichiue, will you have a sword battle with my shishou, the strongest swordsman?" (Maevis) "What?" (Earl)

The next day, Maevis come to ask the Earl, who already prepares to bring Maevis back when the carriage arrived. The Earl was surprised and made his eyes black and white.

"What, are you saying?" (Earl)

"What am I saying is... Chichiue will lose against shishou." (Maevis)

"..." (Earl)

Before getting angry, the Earl is surprised that the can't utter any words.

The two older brothers and the six escort knights were also surprised.

Earl of Austin is famous for being strong as the head of a fighting faction.

He is an opponent that even we count the whole Kingdom, there's barely anyone who can win against him.

The Earl awoke from the surprise, thought that Maevis was just saying nonsense, and smiled in his mind that he had a good reason to bring back Maevis.

If he can show that her master is weaker than him, and Maevis will not get strong with a master like that, he can completely stop the objections.

Even he was forceful to bring Maevis back like yesterday. But the truth that only his sons know is he also doesn't want to be disliked or grudged by Maevis. Right now he has a chance to persuade Meavis. He will absolutely use this chance to take her back.

"Haha, that is a great teacher. If your teacher is really that strong, I also would like to have a fight with him If that person is really stronger than me, and if you can prove that you can keep up with the teaching, you can take follow your master guidance.

However, if you can't do that, then you will go back home with me" (Earl) "Understood! However...

If Chichiue lost to shishou and if I can win eldest Ani-sama, I will not return home, and you will let me do as I like!

All of people here will be witnesses!" (Maevis)

"Huh...?" (Earl, 2 siscons, 6 knights)

When Maevis replies with a full smile, the Earl, the two brothers and the knights are also lost their words.

The Earl are planning to convenient use this to bring Maevis back but Maevis is one step ahead.

"Then, in that case, invite him to our house ..." (Earl)

For a nobleman, he must take safety measures to avoid danger no matter how low the possibilities is.

"No, we can not afford to tie shishou at our house.

In that case, it would be natural for me to follow shishou

Or Chichiue don't have the confidence to win?" (Maevis)

"...Fine by me! When are you going to start?"

"... Tomorrow evening, after finishing the hand over of the criminals and merchants. We will have a fight at the stadium in this town"

"Your master is also coming with you right?

... Well good, fine by me.

Well, tomorrow evening.

You should enjoy the last night with your friends." (Earl)

The Earl caught up with the Maevis's provocation, and dared to forsake the safety measures, but the Earl wasn't stupid to that extent.

He do not know who the opponent is, but there's little possibility that he will lose to an unknown person who might be a high ranked hunter like rank A or S.

But there was no possibility that Maevis could beat the eldest son.

Even if there's a miracle in this world, it will not happen twice in a row.

The Earl thought so.

"Mile, was it really good?" (Maevis)

At the same time as the Earls gone away, Maevis lose confidence that she had before, and she feels un-easy.

"The rest is up to Maevis, so let's go!" (Mile)

And Mile headed to the stadium in this town.

There is always a stadium in a town to a certain extent.

It is nothing compared to what is in the royal city, just a spectator seat was set up on a simple ground, but it is an indispensable facility for people with little entertainment.

Then, special training was started.

"Wrong! That's where you're supposed to grin and say, 『Did you think I needed any special training to learn such a simple killing move?』! Okay, once again!" (Mile) "... " (Rena + Pauline)

And the next day.

The captive unit which arrived in the afternoon was small, because they heard that they only need escorted a single merchant.

Only one man and three soldiers were on one horse-drawn carriage.

There were no thieves attacking the guards of sinners, and the person in charge didn't think that they need to waste person resource.

Originally it was enough, but as they need to escort the criminal aristocracy, this is really few people.

Besides, when they caught a nobleman, they had to explain to the upper side variously.

After the Earl explained the situation to the predecessors of the captive soldiers, and even offer going together the kingdom's capital, the soldiers looked relieved.

He plan to either take Maevis back together with him through the Kingdom, or leave her to his sons and they will head straight to home from here.

In order to separate Maevis with the fellow girls, it took time to think the best choice from now.

Time passed, the time of the simulation game with Maevis was imminent at hand.

The Earl tells his sons and his subordinates, heading to the stadium located on the peak of the town.

"... what is this ...?" (Earl)

And the Earl who got to the hall saw the shops, stalls, and the merchants gathered in a large crowd, they seemed to have people in the town gathering, It was a Big sales.

“Ah, Earl-sama, I will show you to the waiting place!” (Pauline)

“Hey, what is happening here, what is it ?” (Earl)

Earl Austin seeking explanation from Pauline who is the guild leader for the Earl and everyone else.

“Oh, the people in this town are hungry for entertainment and this is also a very good opportunity to let people know the owner of our shop had been replaced, ... did anything matter?” (Pauline)
It was indeed right, it was not a lie.

However, just there are other reasons.

First of all, the girls can be sure the Earl won't keep his promise when it relates to Maevis. (T.N: he keeps his words with other people though) It was almost certain from many episodes that they had been heard for more than half a year.

And her older brothers didn't know what to do when it comes to Maevis.

For this reason, the girls prepared a large number of witnesses so the Earl can't break the promise.

And Pauline also talks with commercial guilds to collect 20% of net profit from store openings and stalls.

We need money to rebuild the store.

Earl was convinced by Pauline's first explanation.

In order to rebuild the shop where the name fell to the ground, it is essential to notify that the manager has changed.

That was a true fact.

“Where is Maevis?” (Earl)

“Oh no, because we are in a simulated game, she will be waiting on the other side. It's not good for the enemies to meet before fighting.” (Pauline) “Fu fu, tell me more ...” (Earl)

Earl said that as he seemed to have a little fun.

“She is already ready over there, as soon as Earl-sama is ready, we will start with a match between Earl and Maevis’ Shishou.” (Pauline) “I understand” (Earl)

As he answered, the Earl started preparing equipment.

◎ Talesu Town – stadium

“Everyone, sorry to keep you waiting!

We will now start the battle between the female hunter who cooperated in the extermination of the evil deeds who were hanging in this town and her father who trying to bring her back preparing for the marriage.

The battles that bet on her freedom will be held!” (Pauline)

“Oooooooooooooo!” (Audience)

“Wait a moment!” (Earl)

The gathered audience raises a scream and rises from their seats.

Pauline heard a protest voice, but she doesn’t care about such a thing, Pauline ‘s moderator advances.

“The victory condition of female hunter is her master wins against her father and she wins against her eldest brother!

By the way, it seems that her father are a renowned master of the sword in his fighting faction, and her eldest brother is a renowned captain of the Kingdom Army.

How excited, isn’t this a one-sided condition?” (Pauline)

“Hey !!” (Earl)

She felt like someone was complaining, but Pauline, who is doing an important job, doesn't care about that. She is carefully on not to give out family names and individual names, keep the moderator.

"The first game is the female hunter's father vs her master!

First of all, (On the blue corner) is her father, if you please!" (Pauline)

It was a very bad introduction, but the Earl still accept it.

He can't afford to back out in this battle.

Earl Austin walks to the center of the stadium with a stupid face.

"And your opponent, (on the red corner) female hunter's teacher, if you please!" (Pauline) From the opposite side of the Earl, one person goes to the center.

As soon as everyone saw that figure, the noise of the audience stop, and the silence spread to the stadium.

It was a petite girl like a child, like a child. (like a child was important so it was repeat twice in raw) Because they heard she is a master of female hunter, they think of tall or strong swordsman. But this girl isn't like that at all.

Some adults are petite, and if they are elves or dwarfs, the appearance and age may be far apart.

If you think so, it is strange but still acceptable.

There was nothing strange about it. Yep.

The girl even have a dubious mask around her eyes.

And the girl declared with a loud voice.

"My name is Evening dress mask!" (Mile) (T.N: Evening Dress was katakana, mask is kamen)

"WHAT WAS THAT!" (The whole stadium)

The whole stadium screamed.

In the first place, the woman was equipped with ordinary hunter and she doesn't wear the evening dress.

No, perhaps, maybe she has a problem with language. Yep, that must be it.

“Well, it’s amusing ...

For a little girl like you to be Maevis’s oshishou-sama!” (Earl) “Say whatever you want, you are but a fool who mistake your own child talent ...” (Mile) (

“What, I knew everything about my daughter...

That child certainly had a sword talent more than other people

However, it is merely『more than average talent』.

I also know that half of the swordsmen have less than average talent, the other half have more than average talent.

Beyond the crowd, more than the average, everything else is just that extent.

It is by no means special.

I don’t plan to let her walk down such a dangerous road!

For her, to live as a daughter of aristocracy, and a wife of aristocracy, it will be the most way ...” (Earl) Evening dress masked when hearing the Earl words , for some reason had a sullen look.

Even if she wears a mask, everyone can clearly see it.

“Foolish...” (Mile) (Orokana)

“What!” (Earl)

Earl whose faithfulness to her daughter is called as foolish became angry and raise his voice.

But the evening dress mask keeps on speaking.

“You are, just someone who put your ideal on other people and you are always trying to make other follow it.” (Mile) (T.N: Help, I can’t translate this, for some reason Mile has some words mean picked cabbage) (お前は、キャベツの酢漬けが好物だな？ そして、それをいつもメーヴィスにも食べさせようとしているであろう) “Eh? why was ...” (Earl)

When the Earl heard an unexpected reply, his arm was shaking.

“Do you know! Because you are just one-side decided everything like that, you blindly to the fact that you hurting Maevis and waste her talent!” (Mile)

“What, it’s a lie!” (Earl)

“It is not a lie, and the thing that you think that Maevis is happy is actually make her suffer. You are but a fool” (Mile) “Shut up! It’s a lie, it shouldn’t be such a thing ...” (Earl)

“Then why does she want to be with me, not you?” (Mile)

“Well ... you’re getting on my nerve, I will just make you realize of the fact that you are weak and wake Maevis from her dream! Here I go!” (Earl) And the Earl Austin unleashing the sword.

The mysterious evening dress masks also pulls out the sword.

The Earl stepped in quickly, he entered a stance so-called “Bamboo split (唐竹割り)”, swung the sword down over the head of evening dress mask.

Women with inferior height could not catch up with disadvantageous posture.

And “Bamboo split” is a technique make full use of height and weight different.

However, instead of avoiding, the evening dress mask took that attack head on with a simulated sword on single hand.

“Inuyuuuuu ...” (Earl)

The small woman opponent, the Earl thought that she could be crushed by force, kept putting his strength. Everyone include the Earl are in surprise at that the small girl have that kind of strength, although she is in a disadvantageous position that is difficult to put power.

5 seconds, 10 seconds, 15 seconds ...

The Earl’s face became red and a sweat drop floated on his forehead, but there was no sign of the sword moving.

And after a while.

“Boring! Te~ya” (Mile)

Mil ... Evening dress swing her sword and bounced both the Earl and his sword backward. The Earl is in panic.

“Ku~..., who are you, a dwarf or a half?” (Earl)

With that power that doesn't suit physique, the Count judged that the little girl in front of him isn't a normal human.

However.

“Well, I am just an ordinary, average human girl you can meet anywhere”
(Mile)

“A lieeeeeeee!” (Audience's inner thought) (Usodaaa~aaa)

Well, the latter half, “human girl” may be true.

But the first half is a lie. Absolutely a lie!

But the little girl doesn't have consciousness that she is lying, that girl should re-learn our national language.

Everyone thought so.

“Well, I will be serious soon ...” (Mile)

Mile will not use magic in this game. It is meaningless unless she wins with sword skill alone.

And, Mil ... Evening dresses begin the battle.

Moreover, it is fun as if she fought with Guren. (T.N: the B rank hunter in graduate battle)

Chapter 73

© Talesu Town - stadium

This time, Mil... Evening Dress Mask is the one who attack.

It is a high speed combat.

And the Earl who receives it with his sword bounces back.

Mile swings the sword again to attack the Earl.

After that, intense sword clash continued.

Because the Earl have a dignified straight-ahead match as a knight, so rather than moved around like the battle with Guren, Mile had change to more suitable power to face the Earl.

There was not much movement, a fierce battle that continued between attack and defend using swords.

It seemed to be a disadvantage for a hunter with small build, but it had nothing to do with Mile.

Originally, her sword skill as a hunter was also poor, so it didn't matter much how she fought.

Speed and power. It was only what Mile pursuit.

On other hand, the Earl began to feel impatient.

It was because the skill of the opponent was very poor.

Usually, the swordsman has decent sword skill can't win against a very skillful swordsman. He can overcome by technique, exceeding speed, exceeding judgment and reading your opponent movements before hand.

However, amateur make unexpected movements. You can't read their movements. Although amateur is inferior in technique and speed but there's a high chance they can land an unexpected blow on you.

And his opponent has amateur sword skill but she swings sword with the speed and power exceeding the expert.

It was dangerous. It was a terribly dangerous opponent.

A moment of carelessness will become a fatal injury, a powerful high-speed consecutive blow that he can't read the movement ahead at all.

The Earl had to keep concentrating, which forced him to exhaust abnormally.

If it is normal amateur, he just needs to bait his opponent to attack and quickly counter blow to defeat them.

However, the small girl in front of him blocks all his attacks. Why? How can she react to all his attacks while her skill is poor.

The battle continues and the end can't be seen.

The Earl gradually suffered from fatigue, and the impatience began to rise.

(In this way, equal ... no, for real?)

How can this little girl really be all right with all this?

She kept attacking with ridiculous speed and power for a long time but neither her speed or power decrease.

Besides, there are no fragments of fatigue and impatience.

Well, no doubt, she was playing with me ... , impossible, there can't be such a thing!) (Earl's inner thought) Impatience and fatigue create disturbances and a gap in his defense.

Ga chari (SFX)

"U~u ..." (Earl)

The part near the handle of the blade was struck and Earl dropped his sword.

The Earl wasn't careless. He was beaten with a speed and heavy blow and his hands are numbed to the point he dropped the sword.

His sword was dropped on the ground.

Cheers are rising up from the audience.

As a knight, what a blunder. What a humiliation.

He can't stop the flushing of his face or the trembling of his arms.

"Please, pick up as soon as possible" (Mile)

"What ..." (Earl)

(She already win even without a victory declaration and it doesn't seem like she makes fun of me.

If it is normal, I will hold my stupid pride, kicks the simulated sword and leave, but this time I didn't go.

This battle is an important factor for my beloved daughte r.

I can't allow her to keep doing dangerous hunter operations as she is. Definitely.

I don't doubt my son's victory. And even if it is one thousandth, I can not ignore the possibility of exposing my daughter's life to danger.

No matter how much hopeless this battle is, no matter how much I will be shame in public and show an unsightly figure, I can't abandon this match.) (Earl's inner thought) The Earl picked up the sword and set it up again.

And after 30 minutes.

There was a figure of Earl Austin with both hands and knees on the ground.

It was already his limit.

He has neither the power to stand up nor the power to grip the sword.

Complete defeat.

There was no other word to express.

"Is it okay that I win?" (Mile)

With Mile's confirmation question, the Count silently nodded.

And a big applause and cheers were raised for Mile which returns to the standby place and the Earl which borrowed a shoulder from one subordinate and returned to the standby place on the other side.

There are no one laugh at the Earl in this place.

The Count was strong.

He was strong enough to win B rank, no even A rank hunter.

However, the other party was bad. That's it.

Even everyone applause, but the Earl was distorted.

There is no anger or hate to his opponent.

On the contrary, he was admired that girl strength.

For a hunter that young with poor technique but to have that strength and speed.

It's self-taught, she put all effort just continued with self-discipline.

Exactly, she deserves praise.

The wrath of the Earl was against his own dishonesty, and it was a self – hatred for not being able to secure his daughter 's safety with his own hands.

The Earl who finally returned to the waiting place, telling his trusting son.

“... Absolutely win, never give up.” (Earl)

“...Yes!” (Weiln)

And Austin's eldest son, Weiln von Austin. (ウエイルン: Ueirun)

To bring back his beloved sister, he turn his heart into a demon, head towards his sister's fight.

Weiln regrets.

After three boys, Austin family finally got the first daughter, Maevis.

Parents and grandparents as well as the three older brothers were loving her.

As a princess of the Austin family, Maevis was brought up without any inconvenience. After watching all three elder brothers training with sword and she said she also want to try it herself.

The three brothers don't agree to it, but they are afraid to be hated by Maevis. So they secretly tried to help her practice only some form and unexpectedly Maevis was quite a talent, three brothers were surprised.

And since they don't want their cute little sister to be attacked by a man. They taught her the necessary self-defense skills.

And when Weilin was alone, he can't resist Maevis who came to ask "Ani-sama, I want to practice sword with you", and he trained her variously with the eldest son's privilege.

After that he found out that Maevis had also gone to other brothers and she was doing 3 times the amount of training he was thinking.

And in their knight ceremony, their adorable little sister is staring at ceremony with shining eyes. For their cute little sister to admire them, made them many times happier becoming knights.

At first they thought Maevis was only admiring them, they didn't realize that she yearning to become knight herself. Further more, they fail to stop their little sister to run away from home, chasing her dream to become knight.

(...Failure. If I noticed it earlier, I might be can't change Maevis interests, but at least I could have stopped her from running away from home.

It was a great failure.

However, I will not fail this time.

I will take Maevis home. In the name of the eldest son of Austin) (Weilin's inner thought)

"Had you been well, Elderst Ani-sama?" (Maevis)

Brother and sister face each other in the center of the stadium.

"It's about eight months, we've been missing you a lot ...

However, I will not be able to get hold back today.

I will be careful to my utmost not to injure you, but it may hurt a little bit."
(Weilin)

Maevis smiles bitterly with the words of Weilin.

“Elderst Ani-sama, I will not be a child forever,
I’m a leader of a C rank hunter party 『Red Oath』
I will show you what I have become!” (Maevis)
When saying so, Maevis pulls simulated sword.
Weiln also pulls out the sword.
“Let’s fight” (Maevis + Weiln)

Translator’s Corner:

How I think Maevis looks like when she was young.

Ani-sama, please teach me how to use sword.

And now, see what she’s become.

Chapter 74

Weiln stepped in suddenly.

(My cute little sister's party is very popular, but that is not the case. The life of my beloved little sister is at risk everyday if she keeps being a hunter. I don't want her to continue working as a hunter.

And, to avoid scratching her cute face even if we make a mistake, I will aim at her torso sideways.) (Weiln's inner thought) Gī ~in! (SFX)

"Huh..." (Weiln)

"What's the matter, Eldest Ani-sama?" (Maevis)

(It was impossible for her to receive my slash with one hand.

At least, Maevis 8 months ago wouldn't be able to prevent even 70% to 80% the speed and power of the current slashing.

Why can she easily receive it?) (Weiln's inner thought)

Gin gin gi~n! (SFX)

"Im... impossible ..." (Weiln) (Ba... bakana)

(There are a few people in our clan's knights can prevent my three consecutive blows.

And It was easily repelled and handled.) (Weiln's inner thought)

"Impossible..." (Weiln) (Ari en)

Maevis talks to Weiln who makes a foolish face.

"Eldest Ani-sama, it wasn't only you who works hard and is strengthening on a daily basis. I also have been training with people far more exceed Chichiue or Ani-sama's power and speed everyday." (Maevis) "What ...?" (Weiln)

And Maevis states the decision blow.

“Eldest Ani-sama, I was told that you are the strongest in the territory because right now Chichiue due to his age doesn’t have his normal physical strength anymore. But actually, Eldest Ani-sama, your strength in our territory is only the second best.” (Maevis) “Who are the best then?” (Weiln)

And then Maevis pointing to her face with the thumb of her left hand.

“Huh...?” (Weiln)

Weiln looked at Maevis and stunned that can’t say anything.

No matter how much special training Mile gives, Maevis can’t get too much strength in just one night.

Mile thought that it will be difficult for Maevis to win her oldest brother with decent means.

So this time is an exception. Mile decided to refrain from using it but right now she has no other choice.

Yes, it is a nanomachine.

Mile called out to nanomachine and asked questions in her head.

(Why can’t Maevis use magic?) (Mile’s inner thought)

The nanomachine is really happily that Mile rely on it after a long absence.

“E? Actually, she can use it” (Nano)

(What!?) (Mile’s inner thought)

“There are various reasons for those who can not use magic.

Maevis falls under the “low effective thought wave”.

In other words, there is a problem with the ability to radiate thought waves outside the body.

Apparently, many clans seem to be in the same state, so it’s genetic ...” (Nano)

(Then you can help her use magic?) (Mile’s inner thought)

“No, because there is a problem with the function to radiate the thought waves outside the bod y” (Nano)

(... can she radiate in the body then?)

“That’s right. Isn’t that wisdom obvious?”

(Ahhhh, be quiet!) (Mile’s inner thought)

Then, as a result of hearing various questions from the nanomachine, Mile finally understands everything.

For Maevis, the output of the thought wave is weak, and the part which radiates it, the one corresponding to the antenna in the radio wave is not functioning.

Therefore, it is impossible for Maevis to release the thought wave out of her body. That’s why she can’t use any magic.

However, even without an antenna, a signal still flows in the circuit. In other words, although weak, the thought waves are spread throughout her body.

That means:

(If there is a nanomachine inside her body, they will react.) (Mile’s inner thought)

“Normally, we nanomachines don’t staying in organisms ... It’s uncomfortable” (Nano)

I could understand the feelings of the nanomachines when It said so.

Besides, there’re instructions for them from the Creator to stay out of the body of the organism.

“However, there are several cases where nanomachines exist in the body of an organism.

The 1st case is when people use magic.

In order to express the magic effect in the living body such as healing magic, it was necessary for the nanomachines to invade into an organism body.

But they will go out of the body after they finish the role and Maevis can't use any magic in the first place.

Beside, the healing magic has poor reaction efficiency of the nanomachine because it takes time for nanomachines to invade the body, so there will be a moment lag to use magic when other use healing magic on yourself.

By the way, because your thought has a close distance and a direct connection state, it is natural that nanomachine will give priority to them.

This is recognized as 『Magic resistance』by humans. ” (Nano)

By the way, what Pauline does against that B rank Hunter is almost the same. By imaging the spell, Pauline un-directed order the nanomachine to invade his body. But that hunter doesn't realize it to send the thought to change Pauline's order. Beside Pauline wavelength is more stronger.

“And the second case is “nanomachine natural invasion”, that is the invasion of nanomachines into the body in a natural form due to breathing, eating and drinking, etc.

In this case, the inhaled nanomachine will try to escape out of the body immediately, but since nanomachine exists in the air with sufficient density, it means that a constant number of nanomachines are always present from the oral cavity to the lungs.

If these nanomachines are received a direct connection thought wavelength, although the effect is limited due the number is small ...” (Nano) (But It still reacts, isn't it ?) (Mile's inner thought)

And Mile thought

(If we can't use nanomachines outside the body, then I can teach her a simple reinforcement method for Maevis who can use it if there is a slightly existing nanomachine in the body, and for Maevis who adores the knight.

... Yes, there was only one.

It is physical strengthening magic) (Mile's inner thought)

After telling Mile that “I am planning tomorrow's simulated game and get a share of the revenue from opening a store via a commercial guild”, Pauline wents to talk to the branch of the Hunter Guild and the commercial guild. Because Mile was worried, she ask Rena go together.

Only Miles and Maevis remained in the Stadium.

Thinking about it again, Maevis didn't receive much benefit from Mile compared to Rena and Pauline's power leveling.

Well, Mile did teach Maevis "god speed sword".

But that is the result of Maevis hardwork from continuing to train with Mile as her opponent. It's rude to Maevis to say that was power leveling.

It's only the result of her desperate efforts not to left behind too much from the other in group for more than half a year.

Still, her performance as C rank hunter didn't rise as much as Rena and Pauline who rapidly improved ability with Mile teaching.

Rena's fire magic, Pauline's curative magic are like ranks B, and possibly just as close to A rank.

But considering their knowledge, experience, applied skill, speed, body technique and others, Rena and Pauline are only about upper rank of B rank.

Meanwhile, Maevis' sword technique was higher than C or lower than B.

Even that skill named "God Speed Sword 1.4 times". It's only mean Maevis is 1.4 times faster comapre to before she learning from Mile. But original, Maevis doesn't have so much speed, even if she got a bit faster, that was all she can do.

If her opponent are the bandits, she can fight with several of them at the same time, but when she fights with soldiers or a knights, it will be different.

Last time we fight the soldiers, Mile had put a pointed pebble is in our opponent's shoes or even the shoe sole was scraped diagonally.

And even if there was only one opponent, if it was a skilled soldier or knight, it will be hard for Maevis to win.

So Mile decided to lend a hand to Maevis who was struggling with her lack of power until now.

"Uhm, about that, Maevis ..., tomorrow, you must win by any any cost, aren't you?" (Mile)

"Yes, that's why I am doing special training now, aren't I?" (Maevis)

Maevis reply to Mile with a dubious face.

"Well, actually, there's a way for you to win, but ..." (Mile)

"What! Is that true? Please tell me, how can I do that!" (Maevis)

Mile is quite taken aback with Maevis vigour.

"Well, that's the way to strengthen the human body, but that might be against to the pride of Maevis as a knight ..." (Mile) "I don't care! This is my last change to chase my dream.

Anyway, if it can help me get stronger, I will accept it somehow!

Well, please tell me! How can I do it?" (Maevis)

Mile thought that Maevis might refuse with "It's a cowardly measure as a swordsman, it isn't my real power, I can't accept it." But looks like she worries over nothing.

And Mile explained to Maevis how to strengthen the body.

Mile thought it will be troublesome to explain everything, so she only told Maevis that Maevis can control her body with her own will power as the "secret of human body strengthening".

In that case, it might be easy for Maevis to accept it as a skill acquired by training.

Maevis stared at miles with a sparkling eyes and listen to everywords.

After explanation, it is practical training.

Balance of strengthening, balance of power, grasp of speed.

Maevis kept falling over and scratch many times after failing to grasp the feeling.

And Mile had healed her every single time.

And when the surrounding began to get dark, Pauline and Rena came back, they saw Maevis with full of confidence and smile really happy.

Translator's note:

Ah... I hate explanation. Way too long and many hard words.

I'm sure I make a lot of mistakes this time.

That's why

I'm sorry, please deal with it for now.

Chapter 75

“What, don’t say stupid things ...” (Weiln)

For a moment, he was stunned to say anything, but Weiln quickly recovered.

Certainly, he was surprised to see his previous attacks was handled with ease.

However, until eight months ago, he had been handling Maevis’s training for many years. Weiln had completely grasped of the ability and talent of Maevis. She certainly was quite strong for a young girl, but she can’t become that strong in a matter of months.

Although I’m looking like this, I’m the most powerful knight that live through a lot of battle. Besides, the other party is my beloved sister Maevis. I must have been unconsciously dropping power and speed.

And, Maevis just happened to be able to handle his attack successfully. Weiln judged so.

“I can’t let you overestimate your own power, it will be easy to get yourself killed if you keep it up ... I will let you know that ...” (Weiln) As he said that, Weiln goes for an attack again. This time, although his power was suppressed, he used his full speed, three consecutive blows aim at Maevis’s body.

Gin gin, gyi n! (SFX)

“What ...” (Weiln)

Not only Weiln is surprised, the Earl, Yuan and the six knights and the audience, everyone was stunned at the scene of the two fighting.

Maevis Perfect blocks 3 consecutive hits without even moving.

No, as Maevis provoked Weiln before, people wonder whether it was an “invitation”.

A great cheer rising from audience seats.

Although Weiln was a dignified handsome knight, but for some reason the cheers from young women and girls were mostly directed towards Maevis.

“Impossible...” (Weiln)

While he’s actually experiencing it, he still can’t believe that fact. If he believe it, his common sense will be confused, and confidence will crumble.

He couldn’t afford to accept it, it will just mean that he was overtaken by his sister...

“This time, I will be the one who attacks” (Maevis)

As she said, Maevis changed the sword to her left hand.

“Secret technique! Urban splash!” (Maevis)

Maevis impaled the ground with the tip of her sword. Urban splash is a skill that can use in urban areas where the ground is covered with grass, obstacles and soil. Having her sword in the ground, Maevis puts force into it and scoop the ground with her sword and swings the sword towards Weiln. This skill is what Mile remembered from reading a shounen manga.

“Ku~” (Weiln)

Although he was surprised, he is really the strongest swordsman in the territory, he is completely avoiding and parrying the splash of the soil.

“Well, you think you can beat me with such a small teaser!” (Weiln)

However, it seemed he was pretty upset because it was dangerous.

“To think you can avoid the urban splash, as expected from Eldest Ani-sama, you were really the best swordsman.

If it was monster or normal, they are already defeat by that one skill, However... ” (Maevis) As Maevis said that, she dashed toward Weiln and attacked.

“As promised, I will have a sword clash with you” (Maevis)

“Uoo~” (Weiln)

Although he can somehow block that attack, Weiln flinches with the slash far stronger than he expected.

Even Maevis had trained with sword for a long time, she’s still just a noble girl. Her power is as most as strong as an average knight in their clan. But the power of her current slash is ...

But he is a knight, he won't let a surpris e take him down. Even is the slash was strong, he tried to bluff with a flat face.

"Well, just this degree, isn't it quite weak for a finishing blow?" (Weiln)

As he told Maevis, Weiln pretended to be calm, but Maevis gave a speach from her Special Move technique with a flat face, too.

"Eldest Ani-sama, don't look on me like that.

Did you really think I needed a special training to learn such a simple killing move?" (Maevis) "What?" (Weiln)

"True god speed sword, 1.4 times!" (Maevis)

"Oooooooooooooooooooooo!" (Weiln)

Maevis used not just a single attack but a consecutive rain of attacks.

This "True god speed sword" is true mortal hardwork of Maevis that she aquired after more than 6 months training with Mile. And her hardwork pays off now.

No matter how much the nerve's response speed is increased by the nanomachine and the muscle output is temporarily reinforced. If the original body's ability can't keep up with it, the body will self-destruct, such as rupture and fracture.

However, with her effort and discipline, Maevis had the physical body that could withstand the harsh movement even though it was only a few minutes.

Weiln under Maevis attacks, he can't do anything but try his best to defend.

The attack speed of Maevis is abnormally fast. It takes all his might to defend himself, he doesn't have a chance to counter attack. Just like his father, Weiln has gradually become impatient.

The brother can not use magic. On the other hand, Maevis thought she “controls the body with her own will”, but the magic of the body strengthening was used.

Fatigue substances were also decomposed, endurance increased.

However, the basic performance of her body was too different from her oldest brother who is a male and has spent much longer training time than Maevis.

While Weiln gradually becomes exhausted and the fighting power gradually decreases, Maevis also will hit her limit soon.

That’s what Maevis was testing with Mile yesterday. And that time limit was close.

Yes, Maevis also didn’t put it on her face, but she was impatient way more than Weiln.

When the limit comes, everything will be over.

And, there is no after.

When she thought so, she made up her mind to do the last attack that she wouldn’t want to use if possible.

Pauline came up with this attack and Rena, Mile also guaranteeing the effect, a killing attack against her older brother. If this does not pass, everything will be over.

Betting on her own future, Maevis used the last attack.

“For a man, you are so persistent, Ani-sama. I hate you! I won’t talk with you anymore!” (Maevis) “Huh!?” (Weiln)

Weiln is shocked and is now just standing still with a face like being wrapped in despair.

Ba shi i~ (SFX)

And Maevis gives a decision blow on Weiln whose movement stopped.

“Huh...” (Audience)

Spectacular spectators.

“What was that, aaaaaaaa” (Audience)

Even if they regret it. Earl, Weilin and Yuan have no other choice but return.

They couldn't do anything in front of a lot of witnesses like this.

They are aristocratic and knights, they can't break the promises.

And as for Teresa and Captain Santos, they are on the side of Maevis because both the guild and the kingdom still need her to work as a hunter.

The Austin family went away from the stadium.

Mile saw the Austin families return, but for some reason Pauline stood with a dark face.

“Well, Pauline, what's wrong?” (Mile)

Pauline cried out to answer the question of Mile.

“Ah... how regretful, I could make money by betting money on this game ...

Oh, if I can return to yesterday! Only if I could return to yesterday!” (Pauline) (T.N: she repeat it twice) At that time, a gentle breeze blew the fragrance of flowers in front of the stunned Mile.

It resembled the smell of lavender flowers on the earth.

Mile hits her hand with Pon.

“Ah, 『The girl who leaps through time』!” (Mile)

Chapter 76

When the girls returned, there were 2 people waiting in front of the inn.

A beautiful middle-aged woman and a boy around 12 to 13 years old.

“Pauline!” (Pauline’ mother)

“Okaa-san! Alan!” (Pauline)

They are Pauline’s mother and brother.

Because she was the mistress of Beckett, she was also undergoing a preliminary investigation. In order to get more accuracy info, all criminals and employees were monitored quarantine and interrogated separately, so it took time for her to be released.

As part of the interrogation, Teresa and Santos who already knew the circumstances also there to help, so we don’t really need to worry about that.

With this, they are finally free and approved the rights of the shop.

Pauline is still a 15 years old girl, is barely counting as an adult but she can be the acting manager. For the sake of revenge and helping her family, she dyed her original weak and gentle heart black in the darkness but right now she can live happy with her family. That is over.

Aran clings to his sister Pauline after a long time. And Pauline is hugging both her mother and brother while crying.

“Well, what should I do ...” (Maevis)

“I wonder what I should do ...” (Rena)

“What shall we do...” (Mile)

Mevis, Rena, and Mile were thinking.

After calming down, Pauline said that she was going to stay with her family tonight and returned house with her mother and brother.

“The business in this town is over and I’m thinking we should return to the capital quickly ..." (Maevis) Maevis continue.

Staying in this town was awfully for her who had become too conspicuous.

It took a lot of time returning to this inn after the fight at the stadium. Solicitation from hunters, merchants, citizen etc. were amazing. She can't even move from that place. There are a lot of question like: "Who is the evening dress mask?" (A)

"Come and join us" (B)

"No, join our party!" (C)

"Please introduce me to your master." (D)

...

Just remember it, Maevis sighs again.

"Well, there seems to be nothing else to do ..." (Rena)

"That's good, right? ..." (Mile)

Both Rena and Mile agreed with Maevis and the girls decided to leave in the next morning.

Teresa and Santos will be leaving the day after that. Teresa said

"I see, then I will prepare the carriage for us to return sooner!" (Teresa)

Santos, of course, will accompany the escort carriage and the Earl's group that leaves the day after tomorrow. (T.N: Earls = Earl-tachi mean Maevis' father + 2 brother + 6 knights but write all that will be too long) [ED: i make it earl's groups how is it?]

It will be a little severe to leave right away when the carriage just arrived yesterday.

Well, It is convenient for Mile because she doesn't feel like going with the Earls.

After dinner, the three go back to their room and talk about their future.

"When Pauline leaves, it will be hard with just three people, are we recruiting new members?" (Rena) "Fortunately, since Mile is almighty, we can recruit just anyone ... but for the moment, what job should we prefer?" (Maevis) As Maevis said, they can recruit just anyone.

If they recruit a vanguard, Mile can fight as a magician or long-ranged with slingshot.

if they recruit a magician or a rear guard, Mile can become a vanguard as usual.

Mile can use both Healing and Support Magic, so there is no need to worry about what kind job the new member they will recruit has.

Mile is an all-purpose tools.

But, everyone was worried.

The almighty of Mile ... Well, they can't be sure if anyone can resist their greed after knowing.

Beside, is it okay for Mile to teach her trick about "Magic" to someone they just meet?

And can that person stay with them or can keep the secret? What if they leave after and teach everyone about Mile and her magic?

"Well ..." (Mile + Rena + Maevis)

Three girls can't say anything about that.

And Mile came up with an idea.

"Well, how about trying out someone from our hunter school?" (Mile)

"Ah..." (Rena + Maevis)

Yes, in the capital, there were several students that graduate from hunter training school together with them.

Since students gathered from all over the country, most people went back to their hometown because they still have families or important people.

As a policy of our country, they were most likely unable to leave the country so they must spread throughout the country.

However, those who were originally from the capital or had families or important people there will remain in the capital.

There were totally 40 people.

Sometimes, we could see them in the guild receive some quest, of course they are only newbie hunter, unlike Mile's party, they don't take restless quest.

With the large number of hunters in capital, it must be hard for them to get a good payment quest or find a good party to join.

If 『Red Oath』calls out to them, they will be happy to join.

And 『Red Oath』 can add the condition to keep secret if they want to join or something like that.

“But, If we don't have Pauline, I'm a bit worried because we aren't familiar with business or dealing with money, and how can we deal with ill-will merchant or client?” (Mile) “Ah...” (Rena + Maevis)

At that moment, a face of a little girl appears in everyone's head, including Mile the one who just said it.

Even though she looks cute, her calculation ability is high, the face of a 10 years old girl.

Even as a breast department, she seems to be able to replace Pauline in a few years.

“No no no, that's not it!” (Mile + Rena + Maevis)

In the beginning, that girl had no fighting power and had already worked, in her family inn.

The next morning, the three girls left the inn and headed to Hunter Guild with Teresa.

The carriage that Teresa had prepared was a merchant wagon, not a horse carrier or a rent carriage ... Luggage was loaded.

“Your schedule change suddenly and the rent carriage is expensive so I can't prepare a good carriage. But with 『Red Blood is justice』as escort, the merchant must be happy to take you together till the capital” (Teresa) As usually, the merchant always want to save escort expenses and improve safety.

To be able to leave immediately, with a party of beautiful and power hunter girls.

Teresa was think ahead when accepting this quest for 『Red Oath』without permission. With this they can travel to capital right away and they can get the quest done at the same time.

Because Teresa is also a guild employee, so she can't let these chance pass.

And the girls completed the order processing with no problem at the hunter guild, they went to the commercial guild where the merchant waited.

When they arrived at the commercial guild, three wagons were parked in the waiting area of the commercial guild.

On that side, three merchants are talking.

Apparently, everyone seems to be a small merchant, each seeming to have one carriage.

“Oh, it seems like those people ... Would you like to have a face-to-face meeting with them. And we will continue about the recruitment to replace Pauline after leaving ...” (Mile) Ga shi~ (SFX)

“Ee...” (Mile)

Girigiri girigiri... (SFX) (T.N: Something like this I guess)

“A a that hurts!” (Mile)

Although she doesn't hurt at all, it's called mental pain or spiritual thing, Mile screaming.

“What 『Replace Pauline』suppose to be mean?” (Pauline)

Reflected in the eyes of Mile who looked back in the hurry was the appearance of Pauline with the blue veins pop in her forehead while smiling.

“Why are you leaving me behind?” (Pauline)

Mile isn't able to say anything, Pauline is frightening with her smiling face.

In a hurry, Maevis assists her from the side.

“No, no, Pauline needs to rebuild the shop with your mother and younger brother ...” (Maevis) Pauline cut off Maevis words halfway.

“The shop is okay because mother was there, she had been working with father all the time. Beside the employees who were quitting will some come back soon. Because the bad people have cleared away with Beckett, it would be easier to manage the shop now. Besides, if I’m helping the shop, I will get in trouble when I am there. Most employees will think I should be the owner, and plan to have son marries me to get the shop...” (Pauline) “U wa~a...” (Mile + Maevis + Rena)

Three girl who are scared of merchant’s scheme become blue.

“That’s why it’s better for me not to stay there. Even my brother succeeds to my shop, his position will be weak when I am there. Even I’m not there but whenever the shop in trouble, a mysterious daughter will emerge from nowhere and annihilates any evil doer want to harm the shop, I make sure to let everyone knows it, and that will be enough to protect the shop.” (Pauline) “...” (Mile + Maevis + Rena)

We don’t know if it’s all true. However Pauline already said that so...

“Shall we go then, we『Red Oath』will never be broken” (Rena)

With Rena’s words, everyone else also agreed

“Oh!” (Mile + Maevis + Pauline)

As soon as the merchant began to move, Earl Austin came running and calling out to us.

“Wait, wait, Maevis!” (Earl)

Because it’s likely to be troublesome again, the four girls pretend that they don’t see anything.

Even so the merchants stopped their carriage, they can’t ignore the noble and knights.

And the girls have no other choice but descend from the carriage and talk with the Earl.

“What is it, Chichiue. You already give me the permission to be a hunter ...”
(Maevis)

“Oh no, I know it. Even I don’t want you to leave but it cannot be helped, I don’t complain about it any more. But this time is something else. Can you officially introduce me to your master?” (Earl) “...Hah?” (Mile + Maevis + Pauline + Rena)

“Your master is strong, but she has not learned a decent skill, her fighting is totally relied on her physical abilities. It is too regrettable to leave a raw diamond like that alone. We thought that if we teach her the technique and your master gives us the training law which gained that physical ability. Then both her and us can become many times stronger than now! Besides, your master is a pure human. Then she is still young. More important, If someone in our clan family can marry her, the future of Austin family is safe! You too would be happy to have your master in our family right? How is it, is it a good idea? Can you help me contact your master?” (Earl) “Please introduce me, Maevis”
(Weiln)

“You can introduce me, too!” (Yuan)

Weiln and Yuan also bowed their heads.

Certainly, the body of 『Mysterious Master』meets the preference of both men of the Austin family. (T.N: in case you don’t get it, Lolita complex) “Hah...?”
(Mile + Maevis + Pauline + Rena)

The girls were surprised.

Well, we can understand what the Earl said. Apart from whether it is acceptable or not.

As the Earl’s position, that idea is amusing. No, it would be a natural idea as an aristocrat who forms a fighting faction.

They were surprised from the other thing.

“They don’t know that the 『Evening dress mask』 is in front of their eyes!”
(Maevis + Pauline + Rena) Of course, the mask of that time didn’t have recognition.

And Miles thought.

(Is this 『The will of the world』like what God said about『enforcement of the world』or『Expected harmony』) Of course, there was not such a thing.

These men were simply idiot.

It was only that ...

Chapter 77

After talking for a while, the girls finally leaving while Maevis saying that she would ask her master next time.

After that, the girls and the merchant team returned safely to the Kingdom without any problems.

There's no bandit attacking so far. Bandits only aim a foolish stingy merchant that don't hire escort hunters or weak people who can't afford to hire them.

However, Mile and Maevis were preached by Rena in the carriage.

"Both of you, I have something I really want to say ..." (Rena)

Rena kept on speaking to the two:

"... Well, the pickled cabbage is delicious! Especially when you eat it with boiled sausage!" (Rena) That's what Rena want to talking about

"As a snack when drinking ale ..." (Rena)

Why is she concerned about pickling cabbage this much?

It seemed like they couldn't listen to it somehow, both Mile and Maevis become a yes-man listen to Rena's complain.

When they return to the guild, there is nothing in particular.

Because the escort unit hasn't returned yet, they still don't know anything.

The report to the guild will be done by Teresa later. So『Red Oath』didn't have to do anything. The girls only received the completion report of the return escort request and the reward.

Teresa also tries to get the reward but her hand is grasped by the Guild Master.

"It's time for your report" (Guild master)

"We came back!" (Mile + Pauline + Maevis + Rena)

As they came back, the girls say their greeting.

However, they don't hear the usual cheerful reply of Reni-chan.

And the counter, no one is sitting.

"Is she in the washroom or something?" (Mile)

At the same time Mile tilted her neck, she heard the big footstep from the far side, Reni-chan came running.

"Uwaaaaa Onee-san~nnnn!!" (Reni-chan)

Reni-chan runs toward and hugs Mile as she's crying.

"What, what's wrong?" (Mile)

From what Reni-chan explained while crying, it seems her trouble are from the bath.

... Because of the bath, it seemed that Reni was going to overwork to die.

After Mile left the capital, Reni-chan have searched for magicians for hot water on behalf of her busy parents at the inn. Even this is the capital, the number of magicians is small.

Reni-chan can still find the water magician or fire magician hunter though.

They also agreed to help. Because those hunters don't have to worry about the remaining magical power while they are in the royal city and they can use most of the magical powers after dinner. As soon as they go to bed they will be recovering the next morning, so they can get some extra money or free drinks and snacks.

It should have been.

However, a big problem occurred from there.

The amount of water that ordinary magicians can produce is small.

Reni-chan always saw that Mile would easily supply 2 tanks of hot water and 2 tanks of normal water, but in fact it was quite a pain to put out water with magic. (RIP: Reni-chan common sense) It's impossible for a normal magician to produce that much water.

There's another is use storage or space-time magic to transfer water. But these kind of magician is really rare and their limit are small.

Blah blah blah ... (T.N: Sorry but there are 30 lines of explain how magician can't produce water and hot water. I feel my head hurt.) In other words, it was difficult to create a large amount of water and boil it with magic.

T

That is why they judge the ability of a magician by "How much water and how many times can you create? And how long will it take to create again?"

To create enough water to fill the bathtub beside Mile, maybe only Pauline can do that.

They can fill the bathtub if we ask more people, still the fee will rise.

And finally, Reni-chan's mother told her an Evil Order.

"We will only hire magician for boil water and Reni-chan will draw water from the well" (Reni-chan's mother) And...

"Die! I will die for sure! Please, onee-san! Do something!" (Reni-chan)

"Ah ..." (Mile)

Reni-chan got backfired by having big bathtub.

How many times does she need to draw well water in order fill that tub?

And it will be harder to carry it to the top of the water heater.

If they left her as she is, after six months Reni-chan is also trained and becomes a good hunter ...

"No non nein nun!" (Mile + Rena + Maevis + Pauline)

Four people of 『Red Oath』shaking their heads at once.

The four girls are worried about Reni-chan

As a countermeasure, Mile divided the tub.

Mile divided a part of a large bathtub into two Japanese bathtubs in general households, and told Reni-chan only use it when Mile and Pauline were absent.

We still need a lot of water drawing, but it will be much less if compared to the last few days. There will be less burden for Reni-chan.

“Oh, thank you onee-san! I thought I was about to die!” (Reni-chan)

It’s still a hardwork for a 10 years old like Reni-chan but as long as Mile still in the capital, Reni-chan can rest assure.

Pauline issued a further help Reni-chan.

“Isn’t it inefficient to use Reni-chan’s who can do other jobs at lodging for these kind of things? Reni-chan should do reception and other work as usual and for drawing water, you can hired the orphaned children. It would be great for they to earn enough money, you can also pay them with food. Wouldn’t it be more expensive if we use magicians to create and boil water?” (Pauline)
Reni-chan after hearing that, her eyes are shining.

“Go...goddess” (Reni-chan) (Me...megami-sama)

Thus, thanks to the (dark) “Goddess”, Reni-chan’s life’s crisis and becoming muscular macho was avoided.

“... Then, what should we do about Mile ...” (Rena)

When the girls took a breath in the room, Rena asking Mile.

“Ah” (Maevis)

“I agree...” (Pauline)

“Huh?” (Mile)

Maevis and Pauline also agree with Rena, while Mile still don’t know what Rena wants to talk about.

“When Pauline and Maevis’s parents’ home trouble are over. I had been thinking about you, Mile. Because of you, me, Pauline and Maevis managed to settle with our past and families. So, now I wonder if there’s anything we should do to help you manage your place?” (Rena) “Yes!” (Pauline)

“Of course, we will help!” (Maevis)

Pauline and Maevis responded immediately to Rena’s words, but Mile’s mind still on the cloud.

“Well ... His Majesty, the king had his eyes on us. And Maevis’s family are interested in Mile, so you don’t have to worry about your future when you retire. You can become Maevis’s sister-in-law or a wife of some noble.” (Rena)

“Well, let’s take a few days off, after that we start out next quest again!”(Maevis)

“Yeah, now let’s find something interesting!” (Pauline)

“It’s nice! Let’s choose a request that is more worthwhile, not just a simple task like hunting a goblin!” (Rena) Apparently, it seemed that they decided it without Mile.

Chapter 78

A man who was deceived and lost all of his money console his friend in a town.

“... you, are going to leave everything like this?” (A)

The man answered powerfully to the words of his friend.

“Of course! Just like Pauline, even I lose everything, I still have my friends who will be fighting together with me like 『Red Blood is justice』. I will surely do what Pauline had been doing and get back everything!” (B) In that town, a special phrase was used as an idiom from that day.

Pauline: do everything skillfully in secret and prepare for counterattack.

Red Blood is Justice: we will support you until you fulfill your purpose.

Poulin roundabout (ポーリンぐるぐる): Retribution until unreasonable.

For a girl, it has become a rather difficult to live town.

“Then, please supply water from this well to the tanks, the bathtubs and hot water supply stand.” (Reni-chan) Reni-chan explain their work, and six orphans are nodding.

Reni-chan finally succeeded in convincing her parents about she will become masculine and she can't attend in counter. They accept the appointment of hiring orphans when 『Red Oath』was absent.

Remuneration is cheap, but it is a wonderful job for children of guild associate members, especially orphans who are indispensable for daily food expenses.

Because there's no danger of life, they can train their body as well, they get enough money to buy foods for several days.

It is a rather good request for migrant orphans. Remuneration is not a time system, but a result system. That is paid for the total workload.

The amount of remuneration doesn't change whether it ends in 1 hour or 10 hours.

So the orphans tried to finish quickly with a few people.

They thought that the client would be delighted and they can receive this work in future as well. It was hard for the leader of the orphans to help everyone alone after all. Everyone must work as well.

But their purpose was not only that.

“You understand, don’t you?” (Boy A)

When Reni-chan went away after finishing the instructions, a boy aged 8-9 years old, who seemed to be the oldest of the orphans, asks other boys.

“Vail nii-chan’s benefactor stayed here, and it is needless to say that Vail nii-chan is still thinking of her until today.”

Five boys listen and nod.

Apparently, these orphans seem to be children who Vail have taken care of. Vail is the boy Mile made a substitute for the graduation test.

Vail tells the orphans that he can take care of everyone now. Thanks to the girl named Mile, he is able to graduate as C rank and become quite strong to do quest alone. More over his name become famous even he doesn’t have a choice on this.

And though Vail never has any thought about become intimate with Mile but the infants between 4 and 5 years old were spoiled.

“When we encounter our benefactor, we will take a break and talk to her about her work and listen to her hobbies, preferences, and other things and then we will talk about how wonderful our boss is. And then we will ask her 『Do you know Vail nii-chan?』 and bring them to their reunion, failing is not allowed, understood?” (Boy A) “Ohhh!&rd quo;

(5 other boys)

And after 3 days.

“It’s strange ... I tried changing the time of work variously, but we don’t meet her at all ...” (Boy A) When they take a break, a boy who is a leader is wondering, and Reni-chan came.

“What’s wrong?” (Reni-chan)

When Reni-chan ask him, after hesitating a little bit, the boy decided to take a daring approaching.

“Well, I heard that a hunter party that all members are female has stayed here for a long time, but I never see them here ...” (Boy A) “Oh, you are talking about Mile Onee-san group, aren’t you ...?” (Reni-chan)

Reni-chan after hearing the boy, make a small laughing as she reply.

“When Onee-san group stay, Onee-san will use her magic to supply all the water and hot water.

We hire you for this work only when Onee-san group are leaving the capital for work and we have no-one else who can supply water.

In other words, when you are working her, you will never have a chance to see Onee-san group.”

Reni-chan who rarely talks with the same age or younger children, was talking in a normal childish tone rather than the tone with the usual adult partner.

Apparently, she wanted want to act like an Onee-san so she came all the way to orphans that are taking a break. However...

“Eeeeeeee ~” (6 boys)

The orphans kneeled down on the ground with despair, they were not in a state of enjoying talk.

“Our ambition ... is a far-reaching plan now...” (Boy A)

“Our dream is to create a “Gryphon’s Hole” that trains orphans into first-class hunters with the help of Vail nii-chan and his benefactor ...” (Boy B) Apparently, Vail had told them about Mile’s story during the school days to some orphans.

“Eh? Eh? Eh?” (Reni-chan)

Reni-chan who is blind to that fact and keeps wonder if she said anything wrong...

“Oh, Rena-chan!” (???)

Suddenly Rena heard a voice from behind when 『Red Oath』 watched the request board in the guild.

When they're turning around, they see Flan (フラン: Furan) a girl from the hunter training school and three member of 『Flame Wolf』 who they have the joint party in escort merchants quest.

“Oh, Flan-san and 『Flame Wolf』. Long time no see it.” (Rena)

“Flan-san, did you join the 『Flame Wolf』?” (Mile)

Rena lightly say hello and Mile carefully ask the question.

“Well, that's right. At first, I was partying with students from our school, but after a while, we realized that we couldn't get better or rely on each other.

That's why we disband and party with experienced seniors. It will be more secure and I can grow faster!” (Flan) Flan, a pretty and cheerful girl with short brown hair and brown eyes, she was a popular girl even when she was still in training school.

Her occupation is a magician, a job that 『Flame Wolf』 wanted.

She was able to do long range attack, and can do some light heal.

“I'm very happy now, even though I'm just a newbie, they are really treating me well!” (Flan) “Oh, that's nice!” (Rena)

Rena and other girls knew that party well. Flan is certainly welcome there.

After talking for a while, it seems that they had already completed the procedure of taken request, the 『Flame Wolf』 left.

Before leaving, the leader Brett remained for a while and he lower his head to 『Red Oath』.

“Thank you very much, really. Thanks to you girls, our name become famous, we even recruit Flan-chan and make our party balance.

It will be perfect if we can get one magician but I believe that we can recruit one soon.

As for now, if I must say. Our only problem is the Civil war among us to decide who will get Flan-chan. Hahaha!” (Brett) Four girl have a wry smile with what Brett just say and see Brett goes away.

“...” (Mile + Rena + Maevis + Pauline)

“Ah ... I wonder if Flan know about Brett and his friends situation ... ?” (T.N: Sorry but I can’t guess who talking) “From that situation I bet she doesn’t know...”

“I can bet one gold coin that she doesn’t know”

“I also bet 10 gold coins that she doesn’t know”

“Well, I will not bet!”

A healing and attack magician, Flan, hunter from training school 12 years old.

She has big eye and smooth chestnut hair.

Petite and delicate, but cheerful and bright, a very cute young girl.

We heard that she was the third daughter (三男坊: San’nan bō) of a poor farmer.

... Yeah, she also has 『Three son』 follow her (『三男坊』: San’nan bō)

Four girls of 『Red Oath』prayed for their success, Brett, Chuck, and Darryl.

Chapter 79

Θ Imperial capital city

There are two schools Eardley and Ekland in the Imperial capital city.

In the evening on a certain off-day, three girls walking in a narrow street.

“That girl, I wonder if she is doing fine ...” (Marcella)

“It’s okay. That girl will not even hurt even if she was stepped by a dragon, isn’t she, Marcella-sama?” (Oriana) “Right now, I’m only『Marcella』, Even I know it, I still wonder if she is doing fine!” (Marcella) “Well ... I guess that’s true!” (Oriana)

It’s been 8 months since then. Three girl: Marcella, Monika, Oriana already advanced to the third grade.

After graduation, Marcella will have a bride training, she will return to her parents house.

Monika will also return to help her family’s business and Oriana has to go work for the country to repay the scholarship.

They only have one more year to live a relaxed life.

Where they are walking is a narrow street which is a little off from the center of the city.

However, they are not alone. Two men blocked their way and when Marcella quickly confirmed their back, there are also two men behind.

...Surrounded.

“It’s not nice to follow the ladies. State your business, I’m listening” (Marcella)

Marcella’s asking them so without scared. Monika and Oriana don’t like that, they are frightened and stuck together.

“Well well, we just need you girls to come with us” (Man A)

“If you would like to associate with, please officially sign up for my father through the introducer” (Marcella) “...” (Man A)

Of course, Marcella wasn’t seriously when saying that.

There was no way for those men to officially apply for a relationship with a nobleman lady. Unlike Adel who hide her lineage, Marcella has the noble tittle.

“Ku~ you will be coming with us even you want or not! There is a person who has something for you!” (Man A) While saying that, that man extended his arm to Marcella.

“Ignition!” (Oriana)

“Ah... it’s hot!” (Man A)

Oriana uses ignition magic, one of the living convenience magic that she’s already mastering. With a little magic power consume the magic still burn the arm of that man.

“Damn, this girl! They only need the aristocrat’ daughter. We can kill commoners, I will make you regret for what you make me go through in hell!” (Man A) Then the man took back his extended hand and pulled out his sword.

“Die!” (Man A)

When the sword was swung down and Oriana was ready for death, Marcella stands before Oriana to protect her.

“Na~!” (Man A)

He was surprised that the aristocratic daughter that they plan to capture comes in front of the sword that he swung down. The man tried to stop the sword in a hurry, but he couldn’t make it in time.

Gusu~ (SFX)

However, the sword didn’t even touch the body of the nobleman’s daughter. It was a mass of ice that appeared in front of her that block the sword.

“What ...” (Man A)

“Ignition” (Oriana)

Before the man reacted, Oriana muttered the spell with an expressionless face.

And the man's hair burning vigorously.

"Aaaaaaa!" (Man A)

Oriana looking at the man who rolls to erase the fire in his head with cold eyes.

She was angry. She was very angry.

;Water ball!" (Monika)

Monika casts a large water ball with only the name, hits the face of another man who blocked the front.

"Ubu, Gabu Bab!" (Man B) (T.N: his head in water so he can't talk)

The man desperately tries to use his hand to get away from the water ball, but the water that covered the head did not go away.

Even if he try to scrape by hand, even if he try to run around and shake it, the movement of a man gradually worsens with a water ball that will not leave his head.

On the other hand, Marcella turned back at the moment that man was attacked by Oriana, she casts the magic.

Again, just like Oriana and Monika, she only speaks the name.

Although it can also be chanted but right now she doesn't have the time for that. The power is decrease a little.

"Fire shot!" (Marcella)

Two flame bullets are flying towards two men and hit their shoulder. The two dropped the sword and fell down while rotating the body.

Marcela seems to have enough room to carefully aim.

Marcella' group were not playing around for two years since they first received a magical lecture from Adel.

One year and two months with Adel.

In the following 8 months they are self-study.

For the sake of their future, they have continued their efforts and research.

Three intelligent people have continued their training based on knowledge of the magical learned from Adel. And this is what they become.

They didn't think that man who plan to capture them would suddenly swing his sword like that. Luckily, Marcella has reacted in time that they were safe but it was certainly dangerous.

"Well, I wonder who are the one hired you guys, now tell me ..." (Marcella)

The men haven't heard that these girl are wonderful magicians.

What they were told are a noble girl, a merchant and a commoner. They can easy capture the noble girl and do what they like with the other two.

And the hunters who seemed to be nearby came running. The girls leave the interrogation seemed to the hands of experts and leave.

On the way to the guild for explanation of circumstances. Oriana, who had an unusual sullen face, hung on Marcella.

"Marcella-sama, what do you think you are doing?" (Oriana)

"Oh, what is this, I wonder?" (Marcella)

"When that man attacked me, why did you do such a dangerous thing ... Didn't you afraid to die?

Marcella's life is better than my life ..." (Oriana)

"Oriana" (Marcella)

Marcela interrupted Oriana's words.

"It certainly was scary to die.

But it's not a big deal comapre to the fear of losing you in front of my eyes without doing anything and keeping living with that regret for the rest of my life." (Marcella) Oriana hears Marcella's words become happy and loosing her face but she still continue.

“Don’t joke around like that!

Well then, do you think how I feel to see you’re dead to protect me in front of my eyes?

Isn’t that more terrible! Are you plan to let me carry that burden for the rest of my life?” (Oriana) “Ah...” (Marcella)

Marcela realized it with her mouth open. It seemd she didn’t think about it.

“Well, I was wrong ...” (Marcella)

“Well, if you unstand, it’s fine. But you must swear that you will never do that again!” (Oriana) With Oriana’s words, Marcella shaks her head.

“I can not promise that.” (Marcella)

“Why, why?” (Oriana)

Marcela replied with a strange look on her face like why did Oriana would ask such a thing.

“That’s because you are my precious friend and no matter what I will protect you.” (Marcella) “...” (Oriana)

It’s no use, Oriana can’t say anything anymore. Oriana understand well about Marcella.

This girl is Marcella, she is a wonderful aristocratic girl who holds gratitude and respect even toward a commoner.

Θ Imperial capital city – Hunter Guild – Guild master room

“... That’s why” (Marcella)

Marcella explains the situation in the guild master room on the second floor of the Hunter Guild.

Guild Master is sitting face to face with the Marcella trio in a table set instead of his desk. And there’s a receptionist was standing alone instead of a secretary.

“Hmm, to thinks they dare to attack princess’s favorite, what did they try to do with Marcela-san ... do they plan to take you as a hostage?

Well, the experts will examine it.

However, to attack you girls the wonder three and the guild secret D rank magician hunters, those guys must have a death wish.

It seems like they don't have any prior knowledge about you..." (Guild master)

"Hahaha ..." (Marcella)

Yes, the girls were D ranks hunters.

With Marcella 『Adel Simulator』as host

Connected with Oriana and Monika by 『Link system』

The three of them made a 『Super Adel Simulator』with can predict all of Adel's behaviors

The calculation result was as follows.

Where is Adel?

Domestic residual probability 6% Overseas escape probability 94%

What is Adel doing?

In the depths of the forest and so on alone latent 5% Lodging in the aristocracy 4% Living in maid 7% Clerk in the city somewhere 9% Hunter 69% Other 6%

And three of them decided to register as a 『Hunter』 for the time being.

The goal is C rank at the time of graduation. Or at least, D rank.

If it is Adel, she is definitely ranked C before they graduate. If there's no age restrict or anything else, Adel must be B rank or over.

Fortunately, thanks to the knowledge that Adel taught them, Marcela trio, who had become a magican hunters.

Monika who was the weakest of the three and next is Oriana.

All of them can use non-chant speed cast. Thank to Adel formula 『How to imitate the phenomenon, without chant at all』.

Of course, it takes a while for them to able to do it. And they tell everyone like Adel ask 『We are able to do it because we have been training to the point of vomit blood』

In addition, the three of them can use powerful magical that is incompatible with the amount of magical power, and their actual magical power exceeds the average magician.

Therefore, they were able to start from D rank by the skip system at the time of registering as hunter.

Of course, it is a secret to their parents.

Actually, they don't really want to become hunters.

However, if they had the opportunity to meet Adel again, they want to raise it as much as possible.

Besides, Hunter's C rank qualification isn't an obstacle.

When you are married, C rank magician hunter will be the best selling point.

Marcela trio didn't intend to become an ordinary hunter, but they still getting common sense as a hunter. They gather medicinal herbs, hunt horn rabbit, hunt goblins, etc. together with other parties.

Parties of boys from F – D ranked never refused their joint party offer.

After that, Marcella didn't get any request to hunt or collect, but received a lot of nomination request despite D rank.

It is an escort request.

It is not an escort like a merchant escort.

Those request will be specified as C rank or higher, and students like Marcella trio can take those kind of request.

What're they doing are become the body guard of some VIP girl.

Like daughter of a nobleman or daughter of a large merchant, etc.

They will pretend to be the girl's sisters or friends and follow the girl everywhere and safety guard her.

Beauty girls aged 11 to 12 who can be with the girl even in bathroom or bathing time, can gain time for the girl to withdraw if there're a lot of enemies. The most important is they can not be seen as a hunter.

The girls only work on weekend. In case they need to work on weekdays, they absolutely need to get through the school. The girls themselves can skip any lesson because they are actually stronger than their teacher though.

And in the past few months, they almost weren't attacked, and Marcella trio were steadily accumulating accomplishments with A evaluation.

Many hunters don't know about Marcella trio's existence as they don't work on surface in the first floor of the guild.

Even if they happen to be seen at the guild, other hunters will think of them as clients that need to meet guild master, or the family, relatives of the guild staff.

The girls were the secret weapon of guild escort specialization that had been working for 8 months, school girl bishoujo hunter "Wonder Three".

At the break of the talks, the guild master invited the girls some tea that was placed on the table, and Marcella accepted it accordingly.

Marcella elegantly brings the cup to her mouth and starts drinking tea, her eyes by chance were pointed towards the object behind the guild master, on the desk.

Four something like dolls were placed and they seemed out of place to be on the guild master's desk. When she looked closely at the doll ...

Pfffu ~! (SFX)

She blew all the tea in her mouth, to the face of the guild master sitting in front of her.

Monika and Oriana, who are drinking their tea quietly, have their eyes follow Marcella's line of sight ...

Pffff ~! (SFX)

The receptionist was late to protect the guild master, withdrew a handkerchief from his pocket and rushed to the Guild Master. But the Guild Master waved his left hand lightly and stopped him.

Then he wiped his face and clothes with his own handkerchief that he took out and put the handkerchief carefully back in his pocket.

Without noticing the cold gaze from the receptionist.

“We’re so sorry!” (Marcella + Monika + Oriana)

The Marcella trio apologized in a panic. Never turn their eyes from the desk.

They wanted to hear about those doll in the desk. But if the guild master or country known that they showed a strong interest in that, the dolls will definitely be investigated.

His Majesty the King can’t give out Adel’s description.

If It wasn’t Marcella or her friend, they will not know about it.

Θ Imperial capital city

On the way home from the guild.

“... It seems she is doing fine.” (Marcella)

“She really becomes a hunter in another country after all” (Oriana)

“Do you think we will meet up with her soon...?”

Marcella could not control her cheeks loose.

“Ufu” (Marcella)

“aha...” (Oriana)

“Ahahahahahahaha!” (Marcella + Oriana + Monika)

Three girls suddenly burst out laughing while walking, passers-by looking at them strangely, but their laughter wasn’t likely to stop easily.

Θ Imperial capital city – Imperial castle

“... And that is the behavior of Marcella-san today.” (Escort A)

The kind, first prince Adalbert, second prince Vincel and third princess Morena listen to the report of the man who has mission secret follow Marcella’s trio, Escort captain Burg.

“Why didn’t you help Oriana or Marcella in that dangerous situation!”
(Morena)

Morena who finished listening to the report raised her voice in anger.

“No, I don’t think those men suddenly try to harm ...” (Captain Burg)

“Is that the meaning of the escort?” (Morena)

“...” (Captain Burg)

“Good, you are dismiss” (King)

“...” (Captain Burg)

After the escort guy went out, the king informed Morena.

“Escort changes.” (King)

“Next time, please make it a trustworthy person” (Morena)

“I know” (King)

Escorted guard was watching from before the attacks on Marcella until they went to the guild, but he didn’t go into the guild. After see the girls went back to the dormitory of the school. And the guard went back to report.

So, he was listening to the conversation between Oriana and Marcella.

“Also, we need to deal with the mastermind behind this attack...” (Morena)

“I know, I’ll deal with it properly, so do not worry!” (King)

“But ...” (Morena)

Even Morena is really worry about the Marcella, the king was a little disconcerting.

At that time, Adelbert of the first prince murmured.

“For a commoner, she doesn’t afraid stand in front of the sword being swung down ... and she treat it as not a big deal, She is an interesting girl ...” (Adalbert)

“Marcella, she is such a nice young girl! She is also strong, cute ...” (Vinsel)

Following Adalbert, the second Prince Vince was also curious about Marcella.

“Huh...?” (King + Morena + High rank officer)

Until now, Adalbert didn’t show interest at all to the daughters of the aristocrat that he met. And Vinsel seemed to be interested in her as well.

The king, who already planned to marry Adel to the royal family after they found her, becomes speakless.

And as for Princess Morena.

(Adel-san and Marcella-san, I wonder if they will become my sister-in-law anytime soon) (Morena) She dreamed of such a future and had a face that looked happy.

Chapter 80

“Well, let’s see if there’s a request that sounds interesting ...” (Rena)

If other hunters who tried their hardest to survive the day, heard what『Red Oath』said. They would be angry for sure.

Last time, It was related to Pauline’s family and right now, they still didn’t need money yet. So they decided to do something, an interesting quest, an unusual work instead of a simple work.

However, such an arrogant dialogue can be said when there’re other party that can’t afford the money.

It reminds Mile about something she had heard in her previous life, it is a saying 『Even Gandhi would chase you away and hit you』『ガンジーでも助走つけて殴るレベル』(TN: I have no idea what this mean, so I just keep what MTL-ed give me) Fortunately, the words were passed through without being heard and Rena kept watching the board as she was.

“Ah, this ...” (Mile)

Three other girls coming to see what Mile pointing at.

Yes, certainly, when we found the request for a rock lizard, it was also like this ...

And in the request form pointed by Mile, it was written as follows.

『Wyvern subjugation

Reward: 30 gold coins』

“We will take it” (Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

It was the first time they see Wyvern subjugation request.

This area is a bit far from the habitat of Wyvern, and if you miss this opportunity, next time you can’t see when Wyvern subjugation request anymore.

They could not miss this.

“Won’t you stop being so careless...” (Guild receptionist)

In the words of that receptionist, four girls remember this feeling again.

Well, she certainly was also like this when we tried to receive a request for rock lizard.

“No, we already know our skills!” (Rena)

“No, even if I say so ...” (Guild receptionist)

In spite of Rena’s high tension attitude, the receptionist attempted to persuade the girls again.

“First of all, in order to hijack a Wyvern, you need to drag Wyvern down to the ground.

In order to do that, the party must have enough power enough to drop Wyvern.

It is fast, high accuracy of hit, far distance towards upper sky

It is necessary to have a remote attack means that reaches up to it.

Performing parties will not be able to satisfy this condition and will abandon orders.” (Guild receptionist) “We have three people who are magicians that can use powerful attack magic, there is no problem!” (Rena) Through Rena’s objections, the receptionist continued talking.

“And even if you can do some damage, Wyvern will run away.” (Guild receptionist)

“Hah...?” (Rena + Mile + Maevis + Pauline)

“Because it doesn’t fight until dead, when Wyvern becomes inferior or feels danger, it will escape. And it will not come out of the nest for a long time.

Even if it came out again after a long time rest, It will not come again to the place it gets attacked.

Wyvern’s hunting range is wide.

Besides, It remembers the person who hurt it, and in other places, it never approaches the hunters who it fought once ... in addition” (Guild receptionist)
“in addition?” (Rena + Mile + Maevis + Pauline)

“In the first place, how are you going to find Wyvern that has hunting ground spans tens of kilometers?” (Guild receptionist) “Hah...?” (Rena + Mile + Maevis + Pauline)

Four people of 『Red Oath』are suprised and have their mouth open.

“It will not come to attack the same village everyday.

After hunting, it will rest fo r a long time.

Wou will need to search for it for days.

When you finally met and fighting fierce fight, there’s a high chance you will be killed or serious injured And even you are safe to give it considerable damage, it will flee quickly

Afterwards, it will never come back near you girls again.

You are wasting a long day to do damage, must be on guard all the time, the payment are worth it because you are dealing with long day traveling, treatment expenses for survivors ...

Did you wonder why the request remains even though the reward is good.

Otherwise, you can’t live long” (Guild receptionist)

“...” (Rena + Mile + Maevis + Pauline)

To the silent girls, the explanation of the receptionist continued further.

“Nobody in the guild branches of the local and neighboring towns accept this quest.

This requests has been brought to the royal branch because the lord and the royal palace are not going to help out, so many of the colleagues’ blood flows for doing this.

The request that have a big negative like this will be called ... 『Red Request』

Only idiots or novices or brave people get such a thing.” (Guild receptionist)

After the explanation of the receptionist, four people of 『Red Oath』 looked at each other.

Everyone nodded, and Rena told the receptionist.

“Because we have no trouble so far, we will receive this 『Red Request』!”
(Rena)

“What ... didn’t you listen to my explanation until now, what on earth are you thinking ...?” (Guild receptionist) (T.N: wait, this isn’t Earth) “Oh, isn’t your job to get the request done?” (Rena)

“Ku~...” (Guild receptionist)

The receptionist raised her voice unintentionally to Rena’s words, but swallowed her words remembered from her own position.

“Why do you ask for such a request?” (Guild receptionist)

“Oh, why do you ask again? You said it yourself a little while ago.” (Rena)

“Huh?” (Guild receptionist)

Rena tells the receptionist who didn’t understand the meaning of her words.

“That’s because we are idiots, novices, ... and brave people!” (Rena)

Miles cried out loud from the side from the receptionist.

“Hey, Rena! Why do you look me when you say 『Idiot』?” (Mile)

After that, the 『Red Oath』 was received the quest to subdue Wyvern.

Even though receptionists could give advice to the hunters, they did not have the authority to refuse regular orders that fulfilled the conditions on their own discretion.

If there is any reason left to refuse, that will be they must convince her boss.

For that reason, receptionist who was favorable to 『Red Oath』 tried her last resort.

“Well then, shall we go to the guild master room first?” (Guild receptionist)

And the guild master just holds his head again.

On the 5th day travel from the kingdom, the 『Red Oath』 party finally arrived in the town Hermolt Where submitted a request for Wyvern subjugation, for the time being, they went to the guild branch.

And when they told that they received the Wyvern subjugation request at the reception, they were told to keep waiting for a while.

After that they were guided to the guild master room on the second floor.

“... You are a kingdom’s capital’s hunter that received a request for Wyvern suppression request ...?” (Hermolt Guild master) The Guild Master said so and welcomed the four people, he had a slightly angry look like a disappointed.

『Red Oath』was guided by the receptionist and entered the room.

“Have you understood everything and accepted this Wyvern request?

... Did you receive an explanation from the guard official of the Kingdom?” (Hermolt Guild master) Before the girls got into the room, the elderly guild master asked the girls that before a greeting.

But it wasn’t a word of looking down on us, but a word of worrying about the young hunter girls.

“...When you girls, hunters from the kingdom’s capital die in vain, my evaluation will go down.

It was as if I let four young girls who have good appearance die, they will hit the backdrop here and there, Please reconsider it!” (Hermolt Guild master)

“...” (Rena + Mile + Maevis + Pauline)

Apparently, he only worried about his reputation.

“We are the 『Red Oath』, C rank Hunter party who received a request for Wyvern suppression.

Rena replies instead, as Maevis just keeps silent with the words of Guild Master.

It is Rena with a relatively low boiling point, but she is conscious about how they look.

She realize that the guild master in the first meeting sees them lightly in appearance.

So, she doesn't really "angry" about that.

Yes, she just want to open the eyes of the Guild master stand before them.

That's it. Because they have Mile now.

"What, 『Red Oath』?" (Hermolt Guild master)

Guild Master looked a bit surprised at Rena's words, because they only know that a hunter party receive the quest "You girls are that ..." (Hermolt Guild master)

Apparently, it seemed that rumors about us were heard.

Like, the simulated fight in the graduation test, the bandit subjugation, and the evil merchant ..., no, the last one is not a 『Red Oath』 but a mysterious party 『Red Blood is Justice』!

Although that party is active, it doesn't matter, ... No-one know where that party is.

Besides, in the end, rumors will flow from that town to the kingdom's capital, and furthermore from the kingdom's capital to the various places,

"I do not know who do you think we are, but we are the『Red Oath』" (Maevis)

This time, Maevis replied.

The party leader is Maevis.

Sometimes Mile forget about it because Rena always lead us ...

"... For a moment, I have heard of your rumors, both magician's ability and swordsmen's arms ...

If it's you girls, you might be able to give a blow to Wyvern or to stifle a fallen Wyvern However, if you can't give enough damage for the Wyvern to fall, it will be useless, please think about it again, you can always fail the quest and taking a small penalty ...” (Hermolt Guild master) “Even if you say so, we are already receiving orders!” (Mile)

To the words of Mile, it is also so, Guild Master to smile bitterly.

After that, people of 『Red Oath』 received a detailed explanation contents of the request from the guild master who acknowledged that the girls aren't an average newbie hunter party.

The outline was explained at the Guild Branch of the Kingdom, but the requested document was a simplified explanation of only the outline, there was new information after the creation of the request form, and various questions were asked to the details.

Such a job is normally the role of a receptionist, but this case is an important request, and there's also the request from the kingdom's capital guild branch.

In other words, the 『Red Oath』 was the hunters dispatched from kingdom's capital guild branch, they requested for assistance from the Hermolt guild branch, so it was a direct response to the guild master.

Nevertheless, it is normal that guild master will take over to details for details after the guild master responds to normal, apparently the guild master seems to be interested in 『Red Oath』 unusual

The Guild Master explains to the end about the situation.

And the contents are a bit smelly but the Guild Master talks honestly without hiding, even so the expression of everyone of the 『Red Oath』 gradually became steep ...

“... I will put together a story” (Rena)

After withdrawing from the guild, the girls take a quadruple room at the inn, and 『Red Oath』 girls have a meeting in the room.

As usual, the moderator is Rena.

“First of all,
the client of this time is the lord,
but the lord only pays the fee upon complete, so there is no need to worry about the content of the request because this request go through the guild.
Beside, it seems like there’s no need to see the client, either” (Rena)
We heard from the guild master about that.
The lord himself think of hunter are nothing more than mercenary.
The aristocrat often won’t bother to meet the hunter,
The lord in the bandit group case, Count of Amuros is a bit unusual.
Even for the people of the『Red Oath』feel that person is comfortable.
The reason why they aren’t stiff when they meet a nobleman is Because they are accustomed to Maevis.

Even Mile doesn’t often show it, she has the experience of talking and eating meals with Noble. It did not seem so so from others, but she wasn’t nervous.

Although Maevis was noble but she is also a classmate at the time of school, so the girls were never nervous when talking with her.

“The damage is about 30% of this territory and part of the neighboring territory,

the vicinity is mostly part of the border area.

Since the damage in this territory is vast,

They are mostly neglected this territory, and let citizen manage somehow

Well, it is a right decision as a lord, it is a bad idea to waste soldiers and budgets in the territory.” (Rena)

Three people nodding with gulp.

Three people other than Rena, of course, have listened to the explanation of Guild Master, but it is important to confirm with words again at such a meeting.

You can reduce mistakes, synchronize the flow of everyone’s thinking, and facilitate discussion.

“...and the problem is this, is not it?” (Rena)

Rena spread out the map on the table as she said that, it's a copy of the material, received from the guild master.

The village and the sighting place that was attacked by Wyvern were marked along with the date and time on a simple map of this territory and neighboring territory.

It was generally concentrated within a certain circle.

That's good. It is quite normal. However ...

“It is wierd, is not it...” (Pauline)

“Yeah, it's a bit unnatural.” (Maevis)

“It's a bit different from the general theory of Wyvern's ecology, as heard in Kingdom ...” (Mile) As Pauline, Maevis and Mile said, the Wyvern appearance had a very strange aspect.

Firstly, the range of appearance is much narrower than that of average Wyvern.

In this area where Wyvern rarely appears, the territorial dispute does not matter.

It is common for it to have hunting ground spread as far as possible.

And, the appearance range is drawing a circle beautifully.

No, drawing the circle itself is normal.

However, in this article, the circle was too drawn too beautiful.

Normally, it is a bit more disagreeable, just “a distribution close to a circle”.

And, next was the date and time of its appearance.

Correct.

Wyvern that appears too precisely and regularly in key villages and key points of the highway.

As if as the Wyvern know the calendar used by humans, Wyvern will appear and decide the location by day of the week.

Of course, it is suspicious. It is outright suspicious.

However, it was not only about Wyvern that the members of the 『Red Oath』 felt suspiciously.

“Of course, this hurdle will be noticed by other lord, soldiers and other hunter.

So they can plan ahead of time the place and day the Wyvern will attack.

Well, that’s probably something like that.

Wyvern Even if it was a powerful individual ... But if the encounter is relatively easy to predict...” (Rena) “The troops will come out, right?” (Pauline)

Paulin muttered, accepting Rena’s words.

Yes, a major reason why the army doesn’t appear because Wyvern’s encounter chance is really low.

It takes a lot of money to move a large number of soldiers for many of days.

And, as a result, if they can’t find it, only the budget is consumed and the result is zero.

If the encounter rate was extremely low, it wasn’t the opponent you wanted to hand out to the lord.

However, if it can be encountered with considerable high probability, the story is different.

Promotion of damage of the territory, practical warfare of soldiers, appeal of soldiers to other territories, appeal as a “good lord for the people”, appeal to the royal palace and upholding the loyalty of the people.

Some damage to soldiers and consumption of budget has the merit will be acceptable.

Even if it escapes when the soldiers give a good amount of damage, it will not appear in that village anymore, and it will be a good result as if the Wyvern is driven away.

But even though there is such regular appearance material, why the lord army has not appeared ...

“The troops do not come out, do they have any reason ...?” (Maevis)

Miles continues on the words of Maevis

“... Or the Wyvern was already defeated or left and the lord is hiding that news ...?” (Mile)

Silence spread among the girls

Chapter 81

The next morning, the four people who took off their lodging departed aiming at a certain village.

Of course, the destination is the village where Wyvern will appear tomorrow.

Since there are no carriage or house, it takes half a day on foot and the arrival will be the afternoon.

Until now, the girls of the『Red Oath』often traveled by the client's carriage or used a coach horse, but the truth is hunters rarely use a horse-drawn carriage which is a luxury mean of travel.

Unless there are any circumstances such as lots of baggage or injured people, they are usually a walk.

While walking, the four were talking about requests to kill.

“After all, the lord is normal, isn't he...?” (Rena)

“Yes, the amount of fee is reasonable, after several pairs of parties have been annihilated and no one has received a request, it seems that he, himself had asked the kingdom's capital guild branch for this request ...

Well, I don't think the lord plan anything.” (Pauline)

“And if he is planning something, we will know soon enough, but it's important to know the other person himself to know what is he plotting.

It is dangerous to declare just by guessing, For now, there's nothing unnatural.” (Maevis) Rena, Pauline and Maevis keep discussing. Mile is silent because subject involve other people's thoughts and actions is her weak point.

“Well then, how about the casualties and the damage on the land?” (Pauline)

“Well, that's true” (Maevis)

“That’s right, about that ...

They can’t deal much damage to the Wyvern, so they couldn’t drive it out and the lord seems can’t spare any more soldiers due to the large casualties When I asked the Guild master, the lord only say in the request that『He will pay money after we punished it』.

In other word, it’s only the compensation fee.

Because it’s a reward for success, his burget will not hurt any more, no matter how many times the hunters fails.” (Rena) They set aside Mile and the story of three people continues.

“After all, the problem is 『If it has normally been suppressed or chased away, why the lord still hasn’t publiced it, it just keeps his citizen un-rest』

Wyvern is certainly a troublesome monster for ordinary parties, but all the parties who received it, knew about it and they received it because they think they have enough chance of winning it, right?

The lord’s troops also specialize in interpersonal fighting, even though they have less experience to fight monster, they are professional in battle.

They have prepare in advance plans, advise from veteran hunters ...

But to think they are failed even with all that...” (Rena)

“Yes yes yes. I get it, there must be a very strong Wyvern, right?” (Mile)

Finally it became a talk that she could understand, so Mile interrupts Rena’s talk.

“HEY, ... well, that kind of thing ...” (Rena)

Although she was interrupted at a delicious part, Rena gently let it pass, as she perceived the feeling of Mile that wanted to participate in the conversation.

Because Rena keeps behaving like this Sometimes other forget that their leader is Maevis.

“Anyway, on the premise that the enemy is tough, we should be caution”
(Rena)

Three people nodding in Rena’s words.

“...But is it okay? I believe in everyone’s magic, but I can’t fight u nless you drag Wyvern to the ground ...” (Maevis)

“It’s okay! It will do something!” (Mile)

Maevis somehow feels uneasy but Mile just casual like normal.

When the girls arrived at the target village, it was near the evening

It took more time than they thought when the girls walked slowly while doing various stupid talks as well as asking for the subjugation request.

The girls plan to go to bed early tonight to prepare for tomorrow so they decided to collect information at the tavern.

After that, they will eat dinner and plan to go to bed.

The girl try to find the inn for the time being.

There are only one inn in the village, so there are no options.

The girls told that they didn’t need dinner to the inn keeper, and they left the inn to find a tavern In this rural village which doesn’t even have a guild’s branch or a contact point, they can only collect information from the tavern or village mayor house.

But this time it isn’t a request from the village and they don’t think that the village mayor has special information.

It is troublesome to ask and explain, so they pass to go to the village mayor for the time being.

“... here” (Rena)

After they walked around for a while, they couldn’t find anything like a tavern.

but when they asked the villagers on the street, the villagers told the girls that this village has only one drinking bar and no signboard...

Well, in this remote village who only stop by familiar peddlers other than the villagers, there may be no need for a sign.

When four people entered the store, there were more than dozens of villagers in the store.

“Huh...” (Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

The girls didn't think that there were a lot of customers at such a time. But it weren't just the girls, the villagers were surprised as well.

“...Eh? Hunter ..., wait, just some little girls ...” (Villagers)

“Well, we the hunter from the Kingdom's capital,『Red Oath』that was requested to subdue the Wyvern” (Maevis) Maevis greeting the villagers and introduce ourself.

“No, no, thank you for receiving the request, but a little ...” (Villager A)

One of the villagers talked to the girls with a slightly troubled tone.

The problem is: this village is the closest human settlement within the Wyvern hunting area.

In other words, most of the parties who taken the subjugation quest would have rested in this village, and the soldiers also might have been based in this village.

That means that the villagers knew all the results as well.

If them compare all the hunter parties and soldier groups before with the lone party with 4 young girls.

They can't help but are disappointed or concerned.

Because the girls understand that so they doesn't feel bad.

“We don't care, we know the circumstances.

Our party have 3 magicians who can use powerful attack magic,

1 swordsman who is stronger than the knight captain,

we will definitely defeat the Wyvern for you.

And if you tell us various information, it will be helpful!” (Pauline)

The villagers who heard the explanation of Paulin gave a voice of joy, and they provided information one after another.

Attually, the people gather here aren’t eating or drinking but talking about the Wyvern.

They’re also thinking the Wyvern will come again tomorrow, and many of them had gathered at the bar after a long day.

From what the girls can see, there were only jugs and wooden cups on everyone’s table.

And according to the explanation of the villagers:

There were alot of group who received the request before, and even more than a dozen soldiers of the army troops also trying to attack the Wyvern.

But all of them have been defeated.

However, Wyvern only counterattack against opponents attacking it, it doesn’t hurt anyone who doesn’t attack it it.

It only comes and grasp cattle, horses, sheep etc as prey of the day with both legs and it will fly away.

There were no casualties to the villagers.

Because of that, there is no tragedy in the villagers, but their livelihood can’t be done if the Wyvern take livestock on a regular basis.

It was a village’s life and death problem.

So, tomorrow, the villagers discuss about their plan:

first plan『To limit the damage by putting the oldest cow in a prominent place and reduce the damage』 and the second plan『keep all the livestock and drive over Wyvern』

However, if it is the first plan, it will not be a fundamental solution, and livestock will decrease steadily, and it will affect the village's existence.

The second plan, if they don't do it well, Wyvern will switch from livestock to human.

Either way, the future of the village will remain dark.

"... Eh? Cows and horses? Wyvern is that big?" (Mile)

Mile has astonishment voice.

It is unreasonable.

Birds have to make their bodies lighter to the utmost in order to fly through the sky.

There is no surplus lift force that can grab a heavy object exceeding its own weight and can fly.

Even if it is not a bird, how much is huge, such as grabbing a whole cow and flying with it ...

"What are you talking about, you were taught at the school for training, standard sized monsters ..." (Rena) Mile rebuts against Rena.

"No, I remember it, but it's a different kind ...

Anyway, I can't imagine cattle and horses can be carried with that size!

Birds also can't grasp things that are too big or heavy prey..." (Mile)

"But birds can't use magic" (Rena)

"...Hah?" (Mile)

"Because birds can't use magic, can they?" (Rena)

"...magic?" (Mile)

"Dragon type are flying with magic, otherwise they will not be able to fly with such wings alone with such bodies.

And Wyvern belongs to dragon race, they can use magic, don't you know that?" (Rena)

Mile answered weakly against Rena's penetration.

"...then, in the stomach, there is an internal organs of firebags and something ...?" (Mile)

"There's nothing!" (Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

All three girls denied themselves.

In the back, the villagers also nod.

If it was the chichioya in her previous life, he will say something like 『It doesn't have an internal organs』 (「内臓が無いぞう」: Naizō ga nai zō) (T.N: A pun) Misato (Mile) was pretty polluted by her chichioya's gag in her previous life.

But fortunately there was no opportunity for her to show it because Misato had no friends.

The advantage of having no friends was only in that respect ...

Chapter 82

Certain demons, such as fire-breath dragon and forest wolves with jumping power that exceed the common sense in the earth's fantasy, certainly can use magic. Mile obediently accepted them as 『creatures of imaging, so they have such abilities』 and didn't have any particular doubts.

With Wyvern (or sometimes called as Wing Dragon) still has 『a body that can fly』 so Mile can accept it. But it is strange that the ancient dragon can fly with its small wings compared to its huge body shape.

The fact is that monsters can't use complicated languages such as human beings, so they shouldn't be able to speak a word (or command the nanomachine). What's why Mile thought that monster in this world can't use magic.

But right now, Other people confirm that monster can use magic.

Mile thinks about it again, that God (self-proclaimed) certainly said, "Nano machine reacts to the Vicious Mind wave output of the living things and causes various phenomena."

Not "human" but "living things".

And when she talked about nanomachines for the first time, it told her that "ordinary creatures, including humans, are set with authority level 1, ancient dragon is level 2, sometimes level 3. Only authority level 3 and above can talk to nanomachine".

(End of Mile Recap)

『Red Oath』 stop talking about that and hear stories about Wyvern from villagers again.

And when Mile listened to the stories of villagers, it was roughly as follows.

Wyvern came to appear about twice a month or once every twelve days, and each time they caught a cow, a horse or a sheep.

Everyone was scared and didn't do anything at first, they were a little relieved from the fact that the Wyvern didn't harm humans. But when they trying to defend livestock, the Wyvern becomes angry and attacks back to exactly the one who just attacks it.

After that, the villagers understand that the Wyvern had no intention to attack the villagers. Even when Wyvern pursuing the villagers, but it doesn't seem to make a fatal attack, it seems like playing with prey more than an enemies.

And when the villagers informed the guild branch of the capital and the lord. The lord wasn't passion when he first heard about Wyvern appears regularly. Yes, if we can encounter Wyvern with certainty, he couldn't just leave it to the guild and hunters like usual but needs to move the soldiers himself.

It is the duty of the lord to prevent the damage on his territory to appeal as a good lord to the country.

On the other hand, except for emergency situations, guild will not issue requests themselves.

In this case, as long as there is no request from the lord, the guild will not move by itself.

It is not a philanthropic project, there's no hunter willing to receive a request without a person who pays the fee. And in this case, it was the problem of the land and the lord.

Beside emergency, the guild only moves after receiving a request. That was the rule.

Imaging, if the guild can freely command all the hunters in the territory as it want, it will be a strength to surpass the army, so they must obey the rule to remain neutral and work for international.

And this time, the lord issued 1 magician, 1 bowman, 1 throwing spearman to take the Wyvern down to the ground. He also prepare 1 spearman to stab the Wyvern after falling and a 18 soldiers team to protect the rearguard.

It was a sufficient military force.

The lord didn't attach hunters with experiences of fighting Wyvern as an adviser, but there's no-one complains, because that army is more than enough to fight against one Wyvern.

And the next day Wyvern at tacked.

The villagers had been instructed to hide in the house because it was dangerous.

After a few hours battle, the soldiers became tattered and desperately try to heal themselves with healing magic.

And the casualties are: 3 dead, 6 serious injured, 5 light injured, missing 1 cow.

Half of seriously injured people seemed difficult to return duty as soldiers.

The commander was shocked with the unexpected huge damage, but he believe that the task was completed as they drove away the Wyvern. After he told the villagers, he and the survivor were leaving with their injured.

The villagers relieved that Wyvern would no longer come. Until 12 days later...

... 12 days after the battle with the troops, the Wyvern reappeared.

In other words, the Wyvern didn't even see the soldiers as a threat.

It kicked the weak small fry that dare to challenge it. And grabbed the prey along with the glory of victory and brought home.

There was no reason to avoid that hunting ground.

The villager who were lost the high value young cow again become panicked because they had not prepared anything.

Again, they informed the lord and the hunter guild in a hurry.

But the reaction of the manor house wasn't good.

After that, the guild put out the request and the hunters begin to come.

For villagers, anyone who can knock out Wyvern will do.

They appreciated that the lord issued the request fee.

However.

First hunter group, second hunter group, third hunter group.

Hunters who receive the quest disappear continuously.

Look like the hunters fail the request, and rumors have been spreaded. A lot parties have been serious damaged to the point that they stopped being hunter or broke up the party.

After that, there was no other hunter receive this request.

And all of sudden the『Red Oath』appeared before the villagers. It's been quite some time that they see the appearance of Hunter again.

“... As we expected, there's no other strange things that we question before. Except for one thing ...” (Rena) “That's right, everyone preferred to do thing their way, it isn't strange with how the lord behave.” (Pauline) “That's right, only ...” (Maevis)

“This Wyvern is too strong and too smart!” (Rena + Pauline + Maevis + Mile)

Yes, the only thing that was strange.

“Well, it's natural that the details weren't written on the request that came to the Kingdom” (Rena) As Rena says, they will not write extra things in the request form. In particular, that will be disadvantageous to the client.

Lying is strictly prohibited, but they can manage to conceal important matters deliberately.

In that case, the reward money is forfeited as a malicious act, and the client must pay the penalty fee for the guild with the extra money to suit the quest difficult and the hunters who fail this request won't pay penalty fee or decrease point.

Also, if the hunter was killed, it would become the subject to punishment by officials of the country.

It is a so-called “attempted murder due to unexpected incident”. (T.N: In case you don’t understand, It’s MPK = monster player killer) However, in this case, there is no change in the fact that “there’s only 1 Wyvern attack the village”.

Even it had defeated the soldiers and some Hunter’s party. They are just “those who failed to kill Wyvern”. There’s not a case like this before.

Wyvern might have been strong, and soldiers and hunters might have been weak.

Because it’s something that no one knows about it, there was no need to oblige to write such a thing on the request form.

Besides, the hunters will understand when they’re examining by themselves.

The lord don’t bother to write extra things of unknown truth and false in the application form. He don’t write the wrong information after all.

Only when the lord write that Wyvern’s behavior is normal. That will become crime.

“So, what are we going to do ... ” (Rena)

“Normally, we have to fight and defeat it from the front, right?” (Pauline)

“Well, I don’t have anything else to add ...” (Maevis)

Whether Wyvern is an intelligent individual or stronger than average.

It doesn’t change what the『Red Oath』has to do, “Wyvern subjugation quest”.

Because they aren’t spy of the royal palace or an investigator of a civil service official.

Without special authority, they can’t do such a thing.

There was only one request they received, “Wyvern suppression” and that was it.

After that, the girls try to gather more information from the villagers, but there was no one who risk going around the place where soldiers and hunters fought against Wyvern. So they didn’t know how the battle actually was.

Only if there was someone know the details about Wyvern, but they would have reported it if they want the Hunter Guild to deal with it.

The fact that the Guild Master didn't mention anything, it was probably because he didn't have anything special to tell the girls.

There may have been a report about "That Wyvern was strong", but the party who failed and ran away from the request. The report "The enemy was strong" can only be accepted as an excuse.

If there were three Wyverns or that wyvern can breath fire from the mouth, even shot laser from it the eyes or something like that. The hunters would definitely report.

After『Red Oath』finished gathering information, they have dinner in shop and return to the inn.

At the time of meal, the villagers were surprised to see the two smallest girl eat relatively big meal, while the two tallest and biggest girls barely eat anything.

This is a safe place so the girls don't have to worry even if the movement becomes dull when they eat until full.

Pauline and Maevis seemed a bit embarrassed to eat while being seen by the villagers so they barely eat anything. Rena and Mile didn't seem to care.

Rena had something in mind so she eat a lot whenever she can, and Mile was just hungry, so she didn't think about anything else.

Apparently the body of Mile in this world seemed not to have much better fuel economy than previous life ...

Chapter 83

And the next morning.

One cow was taken to a small hill a little away from the village and was connected to a tree.

Of course, the『Red Oath』accompanies it.

If all the livestock were hidden and 『Red Oath』stood on the hill.

The girls will not be able to attract the Wyvern.

Also to avoid the unlikely event that Wyvern attack and remember the taste of the human flesh, it would be serious. The villagers insisted to provide a cattle.

Perhaps, they are worrying for the four young girls.

If there's a more delicious prey to eat than humans, the Wyvern will not grasp the girls up but grasping the cattle.

Although the villager didn't believe in the succeed of the subjugation, just imaging the young girls are grabbed by the Wyvern and fly away, lost one of their cattle is still better.

It was good villager to think so.

Four girls quietly wait for the Wyvern after the villager connected the cows to the trees came home.

Because it comes flying from the distance from the sky, it seems that there will be no problem even if they are a bit noisy, but somehow no-one talking, "no talking when ambushing" is habit as hunter or something like that.

In fact, this time, a young man are hiding at some distance and watching the girls. If the young girls are seriously injured, this youngster will let the village know immediately as soon as the Wyvern flies away. This youngster really love the brave of the young cute girls.

This is a brave young man at the bar who can't allow the cute young girls who are stubborn with the honor to face dangerous. But he can't stop the girls, so at the least he wants to help the girls as soon as possible.

Mile has confirmed the surroundings with exploratory magic, of course noticing the existence of the youngman.

However, she thought that it would be a witness as a villager representative, and she thought that he was probable the contact person to rescue themselves quickly if anything happen.

Besides, even if she notice a scene with some problems, she was so excited about the the Wyvern fight that she will have for the first time in her life and thought it wasn't a big deal to worry about a villager watching.

It isn't something you can believe unless a large number of people make the same testimony, such as a stupid story that the villagers have witnessed, or a person who is trustworthy.

Even if he told other villagers like "I saw a terrible battle", it will only pass through with a bitter smile.

That's it, it's harmless. No problem to leave him there.

"There it is!" (Maevis)

Maevis discovers the Wyvern first.

Since this Wyvern is already flying high, there isn't a problem about visibility.

The three girls looking at the direction Maevis pointing to, there's certainly a black dot appears and gradually become bigger.

"...that?" (Mile)

"what's wrong?" (Rena)

Rena think it's strange that Mile who surpassed Maevis about scouting, so she's surprising why Mile didn't notice the Wyvern at the beginning.

"No, that Wyvern, looks like it already have the prey ..." (Mile)

When they're look again, the wyvern are really grabbing something like a cow with both feet.

“Strange ... so, today It already hunted prey in another place, I wonder if it change schedule to attack this village ...?” (Rena) Rena muttered so, but in that case the Wyvern will come straight here.

And as it approached the hill considerably, the Wyvern lower its altitude and disappeared beyond the grove.

“Huh...?” (R

ena + Mile + Pauline + Maevis)

The girls were surprised at the Wyvern’s unexpected behavior.

But right after, the Wyvern appears again. And if they look at it again, the Wyvern didn’t grasp a cow but change to a log that about 30 cm in diameter, the Wyvern is flying toward the girls.

“Here it comes” (Rena)

“Ouuu!” (Mile + Pauline + Maevis)

Three girls responding to Rena’s voice and ready themselves.

The Wyvern seemed to have judged 『Red Oath』as enemy from the beginning.

Perhaps, from clothing and equipment, the girls would have been regarded as the kind of people would attack it, not villagers.

It is attack mode from the beginning.

A log that would be a fallen tree, was grabbed by its both legs.

The strategy that the Wyvern chose is descent bombing. (T.N: I can’t choose the word right but just like bowling, the log would rolling on the ground and attack a wider range) The tactic whose hit accuracy is higher than horizontal bombing. Even it’s a heavy burden on the body, but the effect is high if the wyvern can endure it.

The drop bombardment at an angle of 30 degrees or more will be called sudden descent bombing. And with gravity, the log is still accelerating even with the wind pressure.

The wyvern's opponents are just humans, it isn't necessary to penetrate necessary to increase the speed so much.

On the contrary, if it fly slowly, you can let the opponent have enough time escaped in the end. And it was a lot of more fun to spread the fear to the humans.

But this time, the Wyvern drop the log with high speed. There was no time to escape.

And Mile judged from the Wyvern's familiar appearance that this was the "usual way of fighting" that the Wyvern is good at. So it use this method to any hunter it encounter.

Mile gives out instructions immediately. Other girls heard it and decided to obey Mile's instructions even though they were only half confident.

Normally Mile always stand behind as supporter or listen to other's command, but when the girls think about it again, her magical abilities and various knowledge is over the top. The three girls always make fun of her for being an idiot or lack common sense but that "Idiot" doesn't mean like stupid.

Mile can't read the air, and has no common sense but her power, speed, magic, technique is strongest ever.

In other world, that "idiot" mean "genius". Just like a Judo genius will be called Judo idiot .etc.

And the Wyvern approached, but the four girls are just standing still, waiting for Mile's instruction.

And when Mile thought that the Wyvern was entering its final stage of throwing, she shouted.

"Now, run..." (Mile)

The four girls rush with the full force to run away from the Wyvern.

The Wyvern think its plan was succeeded.

Its prey always runs so it only need to throw the log, rolls and rolls and crushes the escaped prey from behind.

The wyvern's master taught him this method, he already practiced it many times and the effect was confirmed.

From the back of the prey that trying to escape ... Now is the time to drop the log!

“Flip!” (Mile)

Even Mile is running away, she's still checking the back with a her magic. She shouted out loud right at the moment the Wyvern release the log.

The four girls stopped right away and change their direction to the Wyvern with full power.

The logs had been already thrown away from the Wyvern's legs flew beyond the heads of the girls.

“Now. Attack!” (Mile)

And with the next command of Mile, Rena and Pauline ready their attack magic that was chanting while running away.

“... Flame explosion!” (Rena)

“... Hydrogen bomb!” (Pauline)

Gyū n! (SFX)

While being surprised, the Wyvern was desperately trying to twist his body and the attacked magics were missed.

“... I will do it, then” (Mile) (やるわね)

Their magics were missed and and she were watching the the Wyvern desperately rises its altitude. Mile folded her arms and spoke.

“This will not do! If you want to do anything, do it fast before it ran away!” (Rena)

“It's okay, it doesn't take damaged yet, he isn't the one who will run away with just this.” (Mile) As if the Wyvern had listened to the Mile's words that answered Lena, the Wyvern took a sufficient altitude, then began turning in the sky without flying away.

And as usual, Rena's scream her Tsukkomi

"How in the world that you can't read the idea of a human, but you can read the idea of a demon?" (Rena)

Chapter 84

The Wyvern was watching the situation while turning in the sky where Rena and Pauline's magic doesn't reach.

Apparently, he seemed to be a little wary as he has nearly taken a direct hit of attack magic.

However, he didn't have intention to abandon this hunting ground since the danger was only to this degree "Now, we will start our first strike from here" (Mile)

"First strike?" (Rena)

"It means we will take initiative to attack" (Mile)

Mile explains to Rena the words she just said that Rena doesn't understand.

"I know that much! What I want to ask is how to attack the Wyvern in the sky where our attack magic doesn't reach!" Ge~ho ge~ho, ha~a ha~a..." (Rena)
Rena seems to have a sore throat because she shouts too much. For magicians, throat is important, she should take care of herself.

I will make her a throat candy next time. That was what Mile thought.

"Do you say that your magic will reach him?" (Rena)

"Well, I don't know, but if the attack doesn't reach from the ground, I should fly as far as possible to reach it." (Mile) Mile replied to Rena's question, it seems she can still talk if she doesn't shout.

"So, Rena, please start chanting attack magic. I will help you fly to the sky.

After you finish chanting just leave the trigger word and activate magic when you're approaching the Wyvern.

So, please ready your powerful magic!" (Mile)

"Well, I can skip the chant magic anyway. But fly to the sky, what are you talking about?" (Rena) "Please hurry up and ready your magic!" (Mile)

“Well, I understand ...” (Rena)

There isn't time to be talking now. Rena thought so and she decided to believe Mile.

(Even though what she said is somewhat strange, Mile is a friend, a member of the party, she was a reliable friend that helped me many times. So right now, I should believe her unconditionally, that's what a group is! ... Also, I was interested in magic to fly in the sky. I can freely fly like a bird. Somehow, my heart is beating in excitement.) (Rena thought) So, Rena starts chanting the attack magic.

This magic is her 18th original magic, 『Red Flame Prison』

Rena began to chant and when the first half was over, Mile put her hands from behind Rena under her armpits.

“Hi~ya!” (Rena)

Rena is surprised when Mile suddenly held her in the armpits, but she is a professional hunter, she doesn't stop the flow of chant.

She tried to endure a little tickle and waited for Mile's flying magic.

“Here we go! Thunder bird # 1, get ready!” (Mile)

When she said that, Mile lifts Rena's body above the ground.

“Eeeeeeeeeeeeeee!” (Rena)

She was swayed around by Mile, and Rena screamed.

“Swing by!” (Mile) (TN: Katakana)

And then Mile tossed Rena with throw momentum, and Rena was flying towards the Wyvern.

“This magic's name is super cannon, now Rena, please cast your attack magic as well” (Mile) “Aaaaaaa ~!” (Rena)

The Wyvern is startled.

(Humans aren't supposed to be able to fly in the sky, and that girl is surely flying straight at me with an amazing speed.

She also opens her mouth screaming something with a terrifying face while flying towards me.

This is the individual who used magic to attack me earlier. Dangerous!

I must avoid.

Then, that person passed by me without changing the course.

She still kept shouti ng.) (Wyvern thought)

“Aaaaaaaaaaaaaa !!” (Rena)

“Rena, why didn’t you shoot your attack magic!” (Mile)

Even Mile was complaining but she still casted magic to cushion Rena’s fall.

“Rising airflow! Help Rena land safely!” (Mile)

According to that word, the air swirled counterclockwise around Rena’s crash prediction spot, and a strong ascending air current occurred...

Apparently this is a northern hemisphere (どうやらここは北半球であるらしかった)

The ascending air current occurred due to the counterclockwise vortex.

The air pressure drops due to rising air current and counterclockwise whirlwind has occurred.

Anyway Rena seemed to land safely with a strong upward whirlwind cushion.

(反時計方向の渦により空気が収束したから上昇気流が発生したのか、それとも上昇気流が発生したために気圧が下がり反時計方向の渦が発生したのかは分からないが、とにかくレーナは強い上昇気流のクッションにより無事軟着陸に成功した模様であった。) (T.N: Ah, I give up, I hate sciene, I already tried my best) “Next, Pauline, please don’t fail this time!” (Mile)

Pauline rejects the approaching Mile by desperately shaking both of her hands.

“No, no..., absolutely noooooo ~~!!” (Pauline)

Mile approaching closer and Pauline getting away quietly.

“The name of the technique is 『Splitting Pauline』”

Jiwajiwa... (SFX)

Jiwajiwa... (SFX)

Jiwajiwa... (SFX)

And a voice of salvation to Pauline who sweated from being chased.

“Let me go next!” (Maevis)

When Mile looked back, Maevis said that with a full smile.

Pauline without missing the gap, escaped from Mile.

Because she can't leave the battlefield, Pauline decided to check the safety of Rena.

When Pauline arrived at the landing point of Rena, Rena seemed to be in a safe state. And looks like Rena is casting some magic by herself.

“Rena, are you injured? I will use healing magic for you!” (Pauline)

Rena is only good at attack magic and can't use healing magic like Pauline.

Pauline tries to rush in a hurry, but Rena is desperately trying to stop Pauline.

“Do not come here! Don't come!” (Rena)

At that time, Pauline finally noticed.

The magic that Rena uses with her red face from embarrassment is the magic of body cleaning and clothes washing, which the two learnt from Mile.

“Ah...” (Pauline)

Pauline suddenly stopped when she realize it.

Her face has a subtle expression that couldn't be said at all.

And Rena's scream resounds.

“Iyā aaaa ~~!!” (Rena)

Meanwhile, the Wyvern continued to turn around in the sky with its heart beat like crazy from the scaring.

(... I was so scared earlier.

Um, the face of the approaching human was very scary. It was bad for my heart.

After a long time, I finally remembered the feelings of terror.

And, I leaked urine just a little. It is shameful as a proud Wyvern.

In order to erase this humiliation, I need to kill that human being.

Even if it is against the order of my master ...) (Wyvern's thought)

"...Are you ready?" (Mile)

"Anytime" (Maevis)

"Did you finish the washroom?

How about praying to God?

Are you ready with your heart?" (Mile)

"No, I already said it's okay and what are you talking about, Mile?" (Maevis)

Maevis was shivering with expectation. Fly in the sky.

(I will fly in the sky and defeat the Wyvern, the sky's ruler. And in the sky, where the Wyvern have advantage, not on the ground.

It is a great achievement that no-one has ever achieved as a knight until now.

Chichiue, three Ani-sama, Maevis will do the greatest thing ever as a knight!) (Maevis's thought) Maevis gently lifted both her arms to let Mile put both her hands in her armpits. And a mysterious spell is casted.

"Thunder bird 2, get ready! Equipment is No. 1 container, short sword!" (Mile) (TN: Katakana) Her body is swung around by Mile.

Soon ...

"Swing by!" (Mile) (TN: Katakana)

She can still hear the voice of Mile.

“Maevis cutter !!” (Mile) (TN: Katakana)

Do hi ~yun! (SFX)

And Maevis is flying through the sky.

Chapter 85

Maevis flew. She is flying through the sky.

Then, she draws both of her swords with both hands, she does straight to the Wyvern.

“True God Speed sword technique, dual swords, heaven sword, here I come!”
(Maevis)

(They came again!

The Wyvern fluttered.

Human who shouldn't be able to fly in the sky, flew again in the sky and went straight to him.

The fear of the past returned to his mind.

However, this time is an individual that doesn't use magically attack before.

From the appearance, among the people who have challenged me until now, this person will be a type of striking with a stick of iron instead of magic.

Then that wouldn't be a big deal.

Be careful not to get attack at the wings, the body and tail and I won't be hurt.

And then, I will strike this human down from the front!) (Wyvern thought)

In order to erase the previously shameful event, the Wyvern decided to counter attack from the front.

If he think about it, unlike a magic attack, he doesn't have to worry if there is some distance, the attack with a sword can be easy to avoid.

However, Did Mile expect that the Wyvern would fight Maevis fair and square?

...Maybe.

“De yāaaaaa!” (Maevis)

Maivis’s aim is slashing her sword with full power from the front at the head of the Wyvern.

However, such a thing is cab be easy predict by the Wyvern. He twisted his body and made a strong blow with the tail ...

Even the Wyvern tries to counter attack, but the sword speed of Maevis is quicker than he expected!

The Wyvern desperately tries to twist his body further, keeping his neck away from the imminent sword. He try to hit Maevis with his tail, quickly!

Zashi ~yu! (SFX)

After a momentary intercourse, the two bodies move away from each other.

“Gyi~yaaaaaa ~~!!” (Wyvern and Maevis)

The Wyvern was hurt in the tail, when looking at the tail, and its pain and startle.

And Maevis looked at the ground when started falling.

Together they gave a screaming like throat tearing.

“Aaaaa...” (Wyvern)

The Wyvern only keeps turning around.

Mile release the magic to soft landing by rising air current to Maevis. And coming closer to check on her.

“Did you get injured anywhere?” (Mile)

Mile asked her in worry and Maevis replied weakly.

“Nothing, it’s nothing ... but ... let me rest a little ...” (Maevis)

After a while, Rena and Pauline are also coming

Rena seemed to be in a rather bad mood. After somehow gazing at the lower body of Maevis, she became even more moody and approaching Mile.

Knock (SFX)

“Aa!” (Mile)

Suddenly, Rena struck Mile’s head with her staff and Mile is screaming.

Knock Knock (SFX)

“It hurts! What are you doing, Rena?” (Mile)

Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock (SFX) (T.N: as you can see in raw it was 9 hits) “Stop it, please stop it!” (Mile)

Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock (SFX) “Aa, I was wrong! I was bad, please stop it!” (Mile)

Attually Mile doesn’t hurt at all because of the specs of her body.

But from Rena’s expression, Mile realized the seriousness of Rena’s anger in the attack, she pretended to be hurt and apologized in a panic.

“Mile, you, do you understand why I am angry?” (Rena)

“Of course!” (Mile)

Mile replied in a panic.

“You should be launched with more precisely and at a faster speed, so the Wyvern will not be able to avoid, right?” (Mile)

Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock Knock (SFX) “Hah hah hah hah hah hah ... ” (Mile + Rena + Maevis)

Three people, Rena, Maevis and Mile were exhausted for some reason.

And Pauline looked up at the sky, the movement of the Wyvern, which had been only swinging until then, became solid and there was a sign of moving into action.

Three people nodded at Mile’s words.

The Wyvern was upset to the unexpected depth of the scratches he received, but there was no hindrance as long as it only a scratch on the tail.

Even if left untreated, it will cure after a while.

However, even if the bodily wounds are healed naturally, the injured pride will not heal naturally.

That's what he must fix with his own power.

Yes, by defeating the enemy.

He have never fought with his enemies in the past seriously.

He was only playing, he did with a little teasing degree, he didn't do anything fancy like using a trump card, which is much more powerful.

But now. Apparently it seemed like he was able to meet opponents that he should give full power.

The Wyvern was a little pleased about that.

Well, from now on, it's time to fight, not play.

Slow starts to descent and then suck in the air.

It was a serious attack to use against the opponent that the Wyvern recognized as "enemy", not subject to prey or play.

"Direct attack?" (Mile + Rena + Pauline)

"I got it!" (Maevis)

Everyone who judged that the Wyvern would attack with it sharp claw, tail, and tooth directly.

And Maevis is happy with a great opportunity to fight and ready her sword.

However, as soon as the Wyvern approached, he open the mouth open, and Mile became pale.

(... I have seen this before! It is a recorded video of anime that was in my father's study!) (Mile) "Avoid it !!" (Mile)

As soon as they saw Mile is jumping sideway with Pauline, Maevis and Rena also panicked and moved together.

Pa~an! (SFX)

They can felt the trembling of the air, and the soil in where they were standing just now was digging out.

The Wyvern flies upward after his attack.

“Is it a remote attack?” (Maevis)

“Breath? But I didn’t anything!” (Pauline)

“I have not heard that Wyvern has such a capability!” (Rena)

Maevis, Rena, Pauline leaked astonishment voices, respectively.

But Mile just folds both arms and speaks.

“As expected” (Mile)

“You know about it, Mile?” (Maevis)

Mile muttered a murmur for Maevis who asking that.

“Stomach flute technique ...” (T.N: In case you don’t get it, super sonic cry, next chapter Mile will explain, she doesn’t use science but with the easier word to understand for her party)

Chapter 86

That was a kind of breath attack with ultrasound?

Wyburn rarely releases a breath, but it isn't completely impossible.

Although it is a sub dragon, Wyvern still can use the flying magic. And if that is a smart individual he can imitate other dragon using breath.

There are cases that hunters encounter Wyvern that can use breath attack in the past.

However, Mile never thought that this Wyvern would be an rare example.

Mile may anticipate this if she knows this Wyvern is an abnormally intelligent individual.

However, there were no such reports from other hunters. Guild Master also didn't say anything.

However, the 『Red Oath』 can't blame them. The hunters never thought that this Wyvern have the idea of 『keeping the strongest techniques until the end』 and they were defeated really fast with the rolling log.

“Wh, what was that 『something manipulation technique』” (Rena)

“The 『Stomach flute manipulation technique』, well, just think of it as a type of breath attack” (Mile) While answering to Leena, Mile was thinking about it.

(Troubled ... To think that Wyvern can use remote attack magic ...

Moreover, the range is farther than Rena and Pauline ...) (Mile's thought)

Mile was careful, she doesn't let everyone depend on her magic too much.

If everyone just rely on her magic, they can't grow, and in the first place it will not function as a party.

Also, Mile didn't like that relationship.

So this time, Mile kept her main role as a supporting player and she wants to make Rena, Maevis and Pauline become the center of attack and defeat the Wyvern.

But in this situation, it became difficult.

The enemy's attack can reach us and our attack other than Mile herself will not reach the Wyvern.

The Wyvern will not enter their attack range ever again.

In addition, the 『thunder bird strategy』 ended with failure,

Neither Rena nor Maevis are able to fly again.

What should I do... Mile thought

“... I will go!” (Pauline)

“Huh...?” (Mile)

Pauline who said so to Mile was a little pale.

“... Is it okay?” (Mile)

“Because there's no other way, and I'm also a member of the 『red oath 』!”
(Pauline)

In that word of Pauline, Mile nodded greatly.

“... please ... fly, Pauline!” (Mile) (Onegaishimasu. Tonde, pōrin!)

Mile told Pauline about the plan

“Aim straight at his chin. Because you will be separated from him soon, sustained magic is useless.

Shoot the ice pillar against the chin.

If you do well, you may make him fall or at least you can damage his throat so that he can't use that special breath anymore!” (Mile) “I understand ...”
(Pauline)

This time there is a possibility of receiving a remote attack while approaching.

Besides, unlike Maevis, Pauline isn't capable of handling direct attacks by tail, legs and sharp teeth.

Therefore, Mile muttered in her head as insurance.

(Lattice force barriers!) (Mile)

And then Mile put hands under Paulin's armpits and cast that mysterious spell.

"Thunder bird 3, get ready!" (Mile)

Bun! (SFX)

Bunbun bun! (SFX)

"Swing by!" (Mile)

Do shun! (SFX)

This time, Pauline is flying with much faster speed than the previous two.

"Thunder bird, target his Chin!" (Mile)

(It appear AGAIN !!) (Wyvern tho ught) (Mata kita aaa ~~!!)

The Wyvern is facing this type of attack again, he is instantly try to avoid the incoming human but soon regained calm.

(As it is the third time, I get used to it a little. I will not get scared easy again...

And, I thought that this opponent was a magic attacker) (Wyvern thought)

Thought so, the Wyvern opened his mouth, breathed in and made a preemptive strike

Kī iii~in (SFX)

Pa~an! (SFX)

The Wyvern panicked to the enemy who quickly approaching him without any change though his attack should have hit.

The absolute confident knockout technique was broken without any action.

Moreover, unlike the previous two bodies, this time the human doesn't raise a fuss and fly silently.

... Truly a strong dog doesn't bark. Such a word crosses the Wyvern mind.

There is no longer time to shoot the second shot.

And then the Wyvern try attack with his tail ...

The Wyvern, who thought so and was staring at the enemy, noticed.

The person who flew closes the eyes, and is relaxed suddenly.

... Yes, Pauline was unconsciousness.

Do gan! (SFX)

Pauline wrapped in a solid lattice force barrier didn't take a strike from the Wyvern's tail, but crashed into the Wyvern while keeping the kinetic energy as she was.

And both of them are falling towards the ground, the Wyvern and Pauline.

"Uwaa aa! Rising airflow! Air cushion! Gravity reduction!" (Mile)

With the Wyvern falling together so it's difficult to soft landing only Pauline.

Also, Pauline will be pressed if the Wyvern leans over her.

Therefore, it was necessary to gently drop both.

Mile were rushing and the magic was repeated.

It was worthwhile, the fall speed of the Wyvern and Pauline dropped rapidly, and it seemed to be able to succeed in soft landing somehow.

"Master! The Wyvern from the sky!" (Mile) (「親方！空からワイバーンが！」)
(Sorry I can't get the refer) "I can understand if I'm looking at it! And also who is Master?" (Maevis)

Apparently, Mile seemed has regained her margin. (どうやら、マイルは余裕を取り戻したようであった。)

However, Maevis did not try to catch the fallen the Wyvern.

Pauline doesn't seems to taking any damage. Because of her lightweightness so Maevis safely received her with the princess pick (Bridal carry).

However, just in case there may be the impact of hitting the Wyvern, Mile casting healing magic with no chant.

Although the Wyvern had a fallen, it has a reasonable light weight. Well it need to be light in order to fly after all.

and it seemed that it was only slightly damaged by the fall .

Mile took out the thing like something from the item box while the Wyvern was twisting without moving, and she ties his mouth, legs, wings, tail with many round.

The Wyvern who regained consciousness shortly afterwards tried to cut off the binding but the string that looked like a very thin string keep binding the Wyvern.

Yes, it was carbon nanotube. The sturdy material used for Mile's slingshot.

It is impossible to break free with the half-baked power when it is rolled around by a carbonnanotube string.

After a while Pauline regained consciousness and everyone told her that they had defeated the Wyvern, But she couldn't understand the situation and her eyes open wide.

"Well then, let's pass this guy over to the lord.

It is rare that we can catch Wyvern alive.

Because he is smart so there will be places to use. Well, it may be punished due to appeal to the people.

but with this we can get the sign of the request and even money.

Well, we will leave it to the lord to decide" (Rena)

Wyvern gave up breaking the string that tying him because he knows that it would not be easy to break. Because he didn't know what Rena is saying , he was watching Rena with insecure.

And when Mile tried to talk to the youngster who was watching the fight in the shade, another man appeared.

White hair, white mustache. An elderly man who looked like a typical magician with a wand wearing a robe, appearing from the shade, said to the four girl.

“I’m not impressed to bully the poor Wyvern with lots of people.

How about this, can you give me that Wyvern with a piece of gold coin?” (old man)

The four people thought of exactly the same thing when they heard the old man words.

(U, usankusa e ee ~!) (Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

And Mile further thought like this.

(Urashima Tarō!!) (Mile)

“If we take this guy, we can get an additional rewards for captive alive and 30 gold coins for accomplish the request and why did you pay only one gold coin.

Are you plan to say that you are the one who caught it and get the reward yourself?

Besides, if we give you the Wyvern, this time request will end of failure,

We must pay the penalty fee and our party evaluation point will go down.

I will not yield it!” (Rena)

Mile give out the helping word to the old man who gave a frown to Rena’s words.

“Oh, but we can cut out the proof of subjugation quest part and we can give him the Wyvern for about 10 gold coins, right Rena?” (Mile)

“Well, then it will be about an extra surcharge,

But our quest will be completed, so it does not matter ...” (Rena)

It will be ten times as much expense, but that isn’t a problem.

The man asked with a face that looked peaceful.

“Oh, that was nice! So what is that proof of subjugation quest part?” (Old man)

The four responded with their voices.

“Neck!” (Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

Chapter 87

Kingdom – Forest Village – Hill

“What ...” (Old man)

The old man is somewhat angry shouting at the words of the girls.

Of course, Mile had absolutely no intention to give the Wyvern to such a stupid man from the beginning.

She just played a little and hoped that a man accidentally leaked the information.

“But then, he will die!” (Old man)

“It is natural, is it proof of being subjugated ...” (Rena)

Rena returned with the most brilliant answer to the old man’s anger voice.

“But I want to take Low ... the Wyvern alive!” (Old man)

“So, you should know that if you combine all together. The cost will be no less than 100 gold coins.

Because we won’t get the rewards plus the bonus for captive alive and minus the fee for handling request failure.

Most important, we will lose our evolution points” (Rena)

Just like Rena said, no matter how much money he pays, Rena has no intention of delivering the Wyvern.

Even if it says that a man gives a considerable amount of money, we still refuse because we can’t accept the stigma of the request failure and the loss of credibility.

More important, if the Wyvern attacks the village again, it may kill more people next time.

“Gununununu...” (Old man)

It seems that more than 100 gold coins same with more than 10 million yen in Japanese yen, is too much of what he can effort. The old man thinks desperately.

At that time, Pauline was casual talking like natural with him.

“By the way, what is the cow like thing that grabbed by the Wyvern?”
(Pauline)

“Oh, that is a dragon basket I ride, it looks like a cattle caught even if seen by a third person view” (Old man) The word which he spoke like bragging suddenly became smaller and cut off halfway.

... There was a fool.

“Mile, is this one your father?” (Rena)

“What do you mean by that!” (Mile)

Mile raise her voice in protest against Rena.

“This Wyvern, what is it called? Low-something?” (Pauline)

“Low breath” (Old man) (ロブレス: Ro buresu)

The old man reply to Pauline question like bragging.

“Although he can’t be compare with an acient dragon.

He can breath out for the first time, it is rarity as a wyvern, so I give him a name.

A low level of Breath, so I make it short for easy calling『Low Breath』

“Monter Low Breath...” (Mile) (怪鳥ロブレス: Kaichō roburesu)

Compared the child to its parent to name him these days, this old man has been a decent reason for naming. Mile can feel the this old man’s affection for the partner.

Mile was admired obediently.

“I’m telling you, Wyvern isn’t a monster!” (Old man)

“Ah, hi ...” (Mile)

Mile got scolded.

“But you’re using a Wyvern to attack people. What is your purpose?”

“Nothing in particularly ... ” (Old man)

“Hah?” (Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

“I said that there is nothing in particular” (Old man)

“Whaaaaaaaat?” (Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

The answer to the accusation of Mile was too unexpected, the『Red Oath』 raise their voice.

“But, it’s attacking the village ...” (Mile)

“Any Wyverns would originally attack the village in its territory, right?”

“U ...” (Mile)

Mile couldn’t deny the words of the old man.

“Then, this Wyvern &h

ellip;” (Maevis)

“It’s 『Low Breath』” (Old man)

The old man protest against Maevis’s word. Apparently, he seems to like that name.

“... That『Low Breath』, you are keeping him, right? Are you give him instructions to attack the village ...” (Maevis) “I don’t keep him” (Old man)

“Hah?” (Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

“As I said, I don’t own『Low Breath』.” (Old man)

“Then, what kind of relationship did you have with 『Low Breath』?” (Pauline)

The man replied graciously to Paulin who unusually shouted loudly.

“He is my friend” (Old man)

“Whaaaaaaaat?” (Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

“He is a friend of mine, he sometimes carry me with a dragon basket or I heal his injures. We are just friend. Do you think friend have anything to do with other friend eating their meal?” (Old man) “...” (Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

The girls were stunned with their mouth open and the old man continues.

“Besides, I asked him not to attack those who didn’t harm him, especially women as much as possible.

If there’re people asked the forest wolf not to attack any people other than those who attack him, especially if the woman Or asked him not to kill or cause serious injury as much as possible even get attacked, is it still a criminal act?

On the contrary, isn’t the one who attack are at fault?” (Old man)

“...” (Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

Suspicious.

It is outright suspicious and what he says is only a sophistry.

Even so, you can not catch it as a criminal unless you refute what a man is saying.

If there is no evidence, even if they are caught, they will become criminals on the contrary.

How can we ... Three people, Lena, Mevis and Mile have trouble thinking

But Pauline said with a light tone.

“Well then, shall we deliver this 『Wyvern』through the guild?” (Pauline)

“As I said, Robles is my friend ...” (Old man)

“Then, What ?” (Pauline)

Pauline emphasizes that it isn’t a name 『Low Breath』 but 『Wyvern』, and it is only a monster to us.

“What you said is just 『This Wyvern has a human acquaintance』, what we are doing is simply catching 『A wild Wyvern that attacked a village and killed a lot of hunters and soldiers by request, and hand it over』

And what demand right now is like saying to a police officer who is trying to arrest a murderer 『Don't catch or punish him because he is a friend of mine』

You are just his friend, you don't have any responsible for him.”

“Huh ... ” (Old man)

As expected of Pauline.

If you say that you aren't responsible for the Wyvern's actions, we only have to treat it like that.

Then, Pauline gives a finishing blow.

“It seems tough to carry him alive, we might get injured if it's on a rampage on the way ...

How about give up the extra for captive alive and kill it?

Even if we will get additional amount about 10 gold coins for captive alive, it's better to eliminate the risk in the middle of transportation. 30 gold coins and a successful addition point of request success are enough, don't you think?”

(Pauline) Since this man lived as a magician until this age as hermit, he seems to have appropriate knowledge and ability.

However, thinking from the past actions, his social skill is low.

It is already overwhelmingly low.

Rena said “The father of Mile” was too accurate line.

He probably become like this because he lives his life that have a little exchange with human beings.

As soon as the girls realize that Pauline is planning to fuel the man, Maevis and Rena are giving a helping hand.

“That's right, it might be a fool to lose everything, regardless of a little additional fee” (Rena) “Yes, I should do so!” (Maevis)

“Well...!” (Old man)

“Eh, we don't have to do that, right?” (Mile)

After all, Mile and this man were similar.

“Hmm ... apparently you seem to have a kind heart that is different from the other three ...

Your silver hair is really pretty, it's a disappointing that you only have modest breasts ..." (Old man) "Sh... shut up!" (Mile)

The old man is surprised with Mile suddenly changed attitude, he doesn't realize that his compliment is a rude remarks.

"Well, you somehow remind me of appearance of Elsie. For being part of the party that captured 『Low Breath』, you must be healthy and strong ..." (Old man) The old man try his best to get on the good side of Mile.

"Well, I will give it to you.

Rejoice, I will use your body for my cute Elsie heart!" (Mad scientist Wyvern Tamer)

"Just what with that. There's no reason to be pleased with that!" (Mile)

Screaming Mile.

Rena, Maevis and Pauline standing still on the rapid expansion of the story.

And『Low Breath』are somewhat relieved, thinking that the topic have separated from himself.

Chapter 88

“Three years ago ...” (Mad scientist)

The old man started talking suddenly.

The『Red Oath』at first is blatant, but when they think about it, it is a big welcome if they can get the explain about the situation from the other side.

Since they have plenty of time, they decides to listen carefully.

Even if it takes some time, the situation will not change.

“My beloved Elsie has died ...

I managed to pick up the part where Elsie ‘s heart dwelled from his body, frozen and preserved, so I can somehow bring Elsie back later.

Unfortunately, with my storage magic that contains only a dozen kilos, I can’t store the whole Elsie’s body ...” (Mad Scientist) Apparently this old man seemed to have practiced 『insulate the outside and periodically apply frozen magic』that Mile use as an excuse for long-term preservation of rock lizards with storage magic.

Even though the capacity is small, and can only be used by top magician.

It seems this old man has quite excellent talent.

“After that, I had to get a new young and healthy body, but I live in the mountains so it’s inconvenient to find or carry ...” (Old man)

It suddenly became a disturbing story ...

“During that time, I came up with the idea of using a Wyvern to secure means of transportation” (Mad Scientist) (Oh, that’s where the story goes) (Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

Four people who are finally able to see the story.

“So, I struggled to find Wyvern’s residential area, invaded the nest after the spawning season.

I entered the shell of an egg that had already hatched and closed the lid.

When the parents came back, I will come out of the shell. Just like chicks, Wyvern mother with low intelligence has a habit of thinking that what comes out of her egg is her children” (Mad Scientist) (Hey hey hey hey hey hey hey !!) (Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

Four girls protest in their heart.

“And before I knew it, I ran away for my life” (Mad scientist)

“Of course, You come to the weirdest places ~~!!” (Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

To the four people shouting, the old man becomes depressed.

“... I do not want to remember ...” (Mad scientist)

“Ah, I see ...”

(Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

The girls were convinced.

“And when I end of with heavy injured and blood loss. A certain devil found me and helped me ...” (Mad scientist) (魔族: Mazoku = devil race) “Wait, a devil?” (Maevis)

Maevis raises her voice as she surprised.

Devil race live mainly around the northern end of this continent, far away from the area around us where humans live.

And their land is separated by a large mountain range running between the human settlement area.

Although it isn’t something that can absolutely separate the two race. There’s no one trying to go beyond it, unless there’s a reasonable reason, because it requires a considerable hardship.

Beside, the devil race and human race do not compromise.

Actually, even if they were called devil race.

It does not mean that they are worshiping the devil king and trying to destroy humans.

Simply, their race is a bit different. And magical power is bigger than humans in general.

That was it.

From the origin of the name in the first place mean『Race excelled in magical power』or shorten as『Magical tribe』or『Devil』

There's no difference with human being as well.

Toge ther with beaskin, elves, dwarfs, there are totally 4 humanoid races.

And if you asking why only the devil race were removed.

Simply『jealousy』, That was it.

Magical power stronger than humans, Body more robust than elves, dexterous hands than dwarves.

It seems that they used to live together long ago, but it isn't certain when they started to live separately.

However, something must be happened at that time, no one knows the reason, but each other's feelings were bad.

By the way, despite weak magical powers, the beastkin are more likely to become hostile than the human. Because of that, the beastkin also doesn't come to the town of the human very often.

And, for these circumstances, Maevis who is a former noble and a reader knew to a certain extent about the races, but commoners like Rena and Pauline are hardly aware of it.

At best, they only know the Devil is a bad guy who uses powerful magic, the Beastkin is mostly violent.

It is impossible for Devil to be here, so everyone were surprised.

For what purpose, they appeared in such a place ...

“So, they treated my injuries and shared the water and food.

When I was asking they help me, he was laughing as he answered

『I’m going to do something better for you』and I got it a month later.” (Mad scientist)

That said, the old man pointing to 『Low Breath』

“Ha?” (Mile + Rena + Pauline + Maevis)

It was a very meaningless story.

Questioning, although some additions were made, the explanation content of the man did not change.

Mile understood what happened.

However, Mile can’t understand the intentions of the demon at all.

However, once they left this place, this old man and 『Low Breath』 are their first choice.

“At that time, 『Low Breath』 was also smaller, but it was originally intelligent and was familiar enough to talk with me.

because he was handed over to me from that devil, he also made me feel nostalgic. (T.N: Don’t ask me, I don’t want waste my time to check what did he mean by nostalgic) Giving bait, teaching various things, and finally became a single servant and nested.

Although he had a nest, he made tjat nest just behind my home.

A wicked man would treat 『Low Breath』 like riding or livestock, but I can’t do such a thing. So, 『Low Breath』 is a friend. I think so.” (Mad scientist)

So, are you going to hollow my head and replace my brains?” (Mile)

“... .. What about the brains?” (Mad scientist)

A man with a vague face in the words of Mile.

“You said that earlier! You will transfer my heart with Elsie!”

“Oh, about it. What I want to transplant your heart. Why should I care about such things as a brain, such an organ with only a function to make a runny nose?” (Mad scientist) “...Huh?” (Mile)

On the left and right, Rena, Mevis, Pauline nods as if it were common sense.

“Yeah yeah!” (Rena + Maevis + Pauline)

Apparently, it seems to be an Egyptian idea. Those things that Mile has read so far have not been written ...

However, if you think about it, because it is 『Heart』(『心臓』)in Japanese.

Maybe the old Japanese thought that the mind was in the heart.

Indeed, it is the heart that is throbbing when thinking about inappropriateness, not the brain.

Apparently, the brains of Mile seemed to be safe.

It is a story of if a sufficient amount of blood is sent in the transplanted heart.

“How about doing it, It isn't bad deal for you, isn't it?” (Mad scientist)

“It isn't just bad, but it's the worst! Who in the right mind would accept it?” (Mile)

The girls don't even know what the man is saying anymore.

They thought that Mile was the weirdest, but it seems that old man is far beyond her.

And then, the old on knee begging.

“Please! I also would like to live with a pretty Elise!

And listening to his bark everyday with this cute voice ...” (Mad scientist)

“A DOG!?” (Mile)

Mile's cry sounded.

“Why do you transfer the dog’s heart to a human being!

If it is a dog, you should move it to the dog’s body!” (Mile)

“Well, no doubt, that was certainly the case, but you are perfect for the image of Elsie ...

Besides, the girl’s body will be more interesting, various ...” (Mad scientist)

Besides, with the dog’s heart it can’t support human body or otherwise!

What would happen when he want to go to the toilet, what do you do?”
(Mile)

As Miles said so, the man thought of something while staring at Mile.

“Do not imagine it ~ !!” (Mile)

Mile was out of breath blew up and it seemed like she somehow knew a little of Rena’s feeling.

Chapter 89

“Anyway! I will refuse to transplant!

Besides, it frozen normally, the cells are broken when freezing.

Even though healing magic can make the transplant succeed, healing magic has no effect on deceased people.

In the first place, the principle of curative magic ...” (Mile)

At the moment, Mile thought if she talks anymore about this, It will only give this old man an idea about transplant in the heart.

Mile thought so and she abandoned the explanation in that direction.

“Wow, you say something I knew! Do you know this feeling of myself!

Elsie, ... my Elsie ...” (Mad Scientist)

“For me or other people, it’s just a dog!” (Mile)

“Ku, here, this yeah, do it,『Low Breath』!” (Mad scientist)

『Low Breath』stood up with a cry, spreading its wings.

The strings that bound legs and wings and the mouth were completely melted.

“Why ...?” (Mile)

To the surprised Mile, the old man explained with a smile floating.

“Were you thinking that I was just having a long talk?

Fuha ha ha.

While talking, I cast a non-chanting fire magic in my heart and it’s invisible to you

However, it’s fire power is really weak so I must cast it many times!

Until I burned 『Low Breath』’s bindings.

I will make you, the stupid little girls who don't know the battle bargaining remember this day!" (Mad scientist) Carbon nanotubes are also carbon at all.

It isn't particularly easy to burn, but it is just a meaning like it is difficult to light a coal with a single match, if a thin string-like thing is exposed to a high-temperature flame it burns normally.

Just like a diamond burns.

Because it is a close range,『Low Breath』can only use direct attacks without flying.

However, he was try attacking with the wing rather than his claw or biting with his mouth. What he was trying is geting away from the female opponents. If he can, he will rule again.

But He saw Rena and Pauline ready their staff and Maevis readies her sword. He remembered the desperately stunned magical attack and tail pain. He try to swing his tail in a hurry to wipe them away.

"...Water shock!" (Mad scientist)

The abbreviation magic casting that was released at that time was not from Rena, Pauline or and Mile.

It was the dubious old man's magic, he use the gap that『Red Oath』was distracted by 『Low Breath』.

(I win!) (Mad scientist)

The old man grinding that everything happen is just according to his plan.

Ba shan! (SFX)

It was stopped.

The water magic will take a fighting power without hurting too much, which is supposed to hit the biggest breast girl in front of him and involving other girls as well.

It scattered as if it were hit in something just before hitting the little girl.

"What ..." (Mad scientist)

(Oh, I forgot to release the barrier, ...) (Mile)

It was a Mile's work. For a while ago.

"Water cut(ter) ..." (Mad scientist) (T.N: he can't finish his next attack)

Do shu~! (SFX)

He can't make it in time.

Rena delivered the fire magic to restraint『Low Breath』as it was,

Maevis handled the attack from the tail with a sword,

Pauline changed the attack target from 『Low Breath』to that old man and released water magic.

And the old man was blown off and falling on the ground.『Low Breath』also gets hurt and falls on the ground as it is.

"Imp(ossible)..., (we have been defeat by) only... 1 blow..." (Mad scientist)
「ば.....、一撃、だと.....」

Mile judged that the close combat in this situation was dangerous. And everyone already take the old man and Wyvern down so she only need to restrain the Wyvern with eletric shock.

"Well, what should we do ..." (Rena)

『Low Breath』was tied up again. And the suspicious old man appealed to Rena's words while he was still lightly shocked.

"I'm begging you, please don't kill him!" (Mad scientist)

He is looking at Rena trying to beg for the Wyvern's life.

"If you do something strange this time, I will cut your neck on the spot, Wyvern and you too!" (Rena) The old man had a blue face and he obidiently nodded.

Originally, 『Red Oath』didn't intend to kill the captured Wyvern.

There is no point in doing unnecessary killing, and it's natural to get extra money from live-capture.

And there was a redemption chance for this old man and the Wyvern as well.

This old man had been magician for a long time, until he started a lots of research in the mountain. Consider his knowledge and magic power, he can even get an important position of the royal palace.

Hopefully, if he cooperate with the lord as a magician who successfully trained the Wyvern. There's a quite high probability that their sin can be pardoned.

And for that, 『Low Breath』 must be captured alive. The survival of 『Low Breath』 was an indispensable matter.

It is hard to carry 『Low Breath』 manually, and if this old man instructs, it will follow quietly.

Rena thought so, she decided to tie only 1 of Mile cord to 『Low Breath』's neck and let him walk by himself.

The old man said that he was 『a friend』 but 『Low Breath』 would probably recognize the old man as either the owner or his master.

As a precaution, they are connecting the neck of the old man with the neck of 『Low Breath』 by a thin string, And Mile uses magic to return the consciousness of 『Low Breath』.

And soon after the man whispered at the ears of 『Low Breath』

『Low Breath』 nodded himself to start walking straightforwardly.

Is it magic or something for communication, or is intelligence high enough that 『Low Breath』 can understand some human language?

Of course, Mile also shows that old man the firmness of the string.

The old man fully understood that if 『Low Breath』 tried to escape or did a sudden action, it would be 『Kiyu~』. He won't bet his life to try something stupid.

Especially, This man strong point isn't on the battlefield but a research field, a scholar type.

The young man who likes lolita that was watching the five people walking away, and he comes out from the shadow of the bush.

(Scary! Young girls in the city are so scary!) (Young man)

And that young man thought he should choose a village girl to be a lover.

However, women of the same age as myself are rough, way too rough, ...

“Yeah, let’s find a little girl in the village as a lover” (Young man)

If Mile had heard that murmur, she probably said this. “Hikaru Genji?”

After 『Red Oath』 returning to the village, the villagers were surprised with the appearance of Wyvern. But soon after, they were appreciated with great joy.

The girls asked the village chief to issue a transportation method.

The lord wants to appeal with as a godd lord “for his citizen”, he will absolutely dispatch a group. Perhaps he will also join with us. This is a good chance for him to triumph with the royal after all.

Of course, the girls will also get reward for capture the Wyvern alive.

And the villagers treat 『Red Oath』 with a great feast to show their hospitable. The girls has completely forgot about it. The doubts about the existence of a devil. And the suspicion of what the devil is trying to do ...
